School Locks Hold

Gov. Faubus Says A Way Will Be Found

By The Associated Press

Uncompromising stands of state and federal authorities on school integration combined Tuesday to keep 4 Little Rock, Ark., high schools locked against both white and Negro students.

Gov. Orval Faubus who closed the schools Sept. 12 pending a vote on integration, said a way would be found to operate the schools but gave no indication of his next move.

A referendum Saturday showed 72% of the voters in favor of continued school segregation. A private corporation set up to operate the schools on a segregated basis abandoned the plan Tuesday in the light of a federal court order restraining such operation.

A source close to Faubus commented "we have no teachers, no buildings and no money. We are at the end of the line."

'Want School'

Before the private corporation abandoned its efforts, a few of the nearly 4,000 idle high school students gathered outside of one of the schools, speculating on whether its doors would open. "We just want to go to school," a girl remarked.

Teachers conducted classes last week by television but Little Rock stations reported Tuesday the School Board had not asked them to resume video instruction.

A hearing is slated next Monday by the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals on a petition to make permanent a temporary injunction nullifying lease of the schools to private operators.

Difficult

Virginia's Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr., pondered ways of restoring operation of 6 Norfolk schools on a segregated basis. His task was made difficult if not impossible by Monday's U.S. Supreme Court order outlawing evasive schemes that deny Negroes entrance to schools supported by public funds.

Almond authorized immediate resumption of football and evening adult education classes at the closed Norfolk schools. The School Board earlier had indicated it had no authority to continue football in view of the governor's proclamation closing the schools.

The Norfolk closings affected 10,000 students. Private programs planned for closed schools in Charlottesville and Warren County, Va., also presumably will come under the Supreme Court's ban on evasive schemes.

Signs Erected

Little Rock, Ark. (AP)—Guards at two Little Rock high schools resisted installation of signs blaming the federal government for closing of the schools. One pulled a pistol and ordered workmen away from Hall High.

The signs, declaring "This school closed by order of the federal government," eventually were erected at all 4 high schools.

The difficulty apparently stemmed from lack of liaison in the Little Rock Private School Corp., which had leased the school buildings for use as private, segregated schools.

The workmen said the signs were ordered by the corporation. The guards, technically, have been also in the employ of the corporation since the lease with the Little Rock School Board was signed.

HURLERS ADMIT 'BUTTERFLIES'

Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves (left) and Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees—the southpaws set to square off in the opening game of the World Series at County Stadium, Milwaukee today—both admitted on the eve of the classic that they had "butterflies." (Story on Page 13.)

WILD BILL HICKOK WAS 'SICK'—MARI SANDOZ

Omaha (AP)—Nebraska-born Mari Sandoz, who writes serious novels about the West, says nothing disgusts her more than the modern, romantic western.

Such novels, she said, are for people who don't have adventure in their lives.

Killers are not the romantic characters that writers of westerns have one believe, she declared.

"The killers were miserable and hag-ridden," she said. "They had peculiar quirks. One used to walk up and down the street shooting cats. Wild Bill Hickok was a sick man."

Miss Sandoz was in Omaha to speak at the Midwest Book Reviewers Conference Tuesday.

Inventory Listing Of Local Firm Hit

'Scotts Bluff County Would Add $527,000,' Carpenter Says

By Betty Person

Sen. Terry Carpenter told representatives of a Lincoln retail firm Tuesday that if its place of business were in Scotts Bluff County, "our county officials would add $527,000 to your inventory" for state tax purposes.

Carpenter, chairman of the Legislative Tax Investigation Committee, made the statement during the second day of tax hearings held at the Capitol.

Slapping again at the Lancaster County Board of Equalization for what he calls its "failure to do anything" about taxes, Carpenter said the Scotts Bluff County Board has put "millions" on the tax rolls as a result of the committee hearings.

The Scottsbluff senator said that "in every other county where this committee has met, the county officials have added to the tax rolls, but not here. I've abused my own people."

Carpenter made the comments after the firm representatives said their general books showed their inventory value at about $1,780,000 and the senator reported their inventory on their assessment return as "about $1,250,000."

Asking for an explanation of the difference, the company representatives said they believed their inventory on their books to be "a little higher, if not substantially higher," than the actual value after taking into account experiences they have had with purchasing inventories from other stores.

'Considered Recession'

The firm also said it had taken into account the "recession" factor of last March, as well as achieving "equalization" with what similar firms reported, in arriving at its inventory figure for state tax purposes.

Chiang Against Yielding

United Nations, N.Y. (AP)—Nationalist China said Tuesday it would defend every inch of its territory and told the U.N. that surrendering the offshore islands could not buy peace.

"We have found that the policy of yielding does not work. The enemy's appetite grows with eating," Nationalist Ambassador Tingfu F. Tsiang told the 81-nation General Assembly in a general policy speech.

He indicated the Nationalists were pinning their hopes on a revolt in Red China rather than outright conquest of the mainland. President Chiang Kai-shek spoke similarly at a news conference on Formosa.

Shortly after Tsiang spoke here, Secretary of State Dulles told newsmen in Washington U.S. policy on Quemoy and Matsu might change if the Chinese Communists would make some concessions.

Favorable

This brought favorable reaction here from India's Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon, who has been one of the leaders in trying to work out a compromise. Menon said Dulles' remarks showed some progress and added, "it's an expression of the desire of the people to deal with the problem without war."

—Penalty: 10 Years To Life—

Umphres Pleads Guilty To Second Degree Murder

Fatal Shooting Charge Reduced; Sentencing Set For Saturday

By Del Harding

Roy W. Umphres of Roca in a surprise Lancaster District Court appearance pleaded guilty Tuesday afternoon to a charge of second degree murder.

The 46-year-old Umphres had pleaded innocent in County Court to a first degree murder charge filed in the fatal shooting of James L. Beedle of Roca last Apr. 11. But County Atty. Elmer Scheele amended the charge Tuesday to second degree murder, and Umphres waived a preliminary hearing and entered the guilty plea.

Judge Harry A. Spencer said he would pronounce sentence Saturday at 10 a.m. The second degree charge carries a penalty of from 10 years to life imprisonment. A first degree conviction murder conviction carries either a life sentence or the death penalty, depending on the recommendation of the jury.

Umphres had orally admitted to authorities that he had shot the 43-year-old Beedle following an argument over a power saw which Umphres had borrowed and which Beedle wanted returned. Umphres shot Beedle with a .38 caliber revolver at the Beedle home in Roca.

At Mother's Home

Umphres was arrested within two hours after the shooting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary C. Umphres, 65, who lived at 2038 O. His mother, on the verge of tears, was present in court as he entered the guilty plea.

County Atty. Scheele, commenting on the reduced second degree murder charge, said he believes "substantial justice" has been accomplished taking into account all the facts in the case.

Umphres, who appeared in court with his attorneys, Max Towle and Hal Bauer, was returned to the State Penitentiary until the Saturday sentencing. He has been held there for safekeeping since April. He had been expected to come to trial this fall or soon after the first of next year.

Lincolnite, Age 30, Believed Responsible For Burglaries

By Del Harding

Lancaster County Sheriff Merle Karnopp said he believes a 30-year-old Lincoln man arrested early Tuesday morning is responsible for the rash of burglaries in and around Lincoln during the past few weeks.

The man, who has served two prison terms for burglary, was arrested after his picture was identified by a waitress at Bob Lear's Tavern as one of the men who broke into the tavern about 1:40 a.m. Tuesday. The two men, apparently believing the tavern unoccupied, pried open the front door and walked in—only to be confronted by the waitress.

They fled before she realized what had happened. The sheriff's office and police were called, and the waitress picked out the photo of the 30-year-old man from a police "rogue's gallery."

Denies Involvement

Although the man so far denies being involved in either the breakin at Lear's or any of the other series of county burglaries, Karnopp said the waitress is certain that he was one of the men who broke into the tavern. The tavern is located at 2050 Cornhusker.

Karnopp said his men are looking for several other men who may also be involved in the recent burglaries. He said the man being held probably will be charged with breaking and entering and-or possession of burglary tools.

Karnopp said two screwdrivers, two punches, a vise-grip, a ball-peen hammer, a sledge hammer and an 18-inch pinch bar were found in the man's car, which was found near the tavern—apparently abandoned as he fled. The man was arrested by Lincoln police at his home about 3 a.m.

Karnopp also said a number of items—including coins wrapped in bank wrappers, a radio and several leather billfolds—which were reported stolen in recent burglaries were found in the man's home.

About 18 burglaries have been reported since Sept. 11, most of them in the county. The largest haul was at the Farmers Union Co-Op at Walton Sept. 26 where the thieves escaped with an estimated $700 in cash from a safe.

Highs 50s, 60s Seen For State

It won't be hot Wednesday, but it will seem a good deal warmer after early morning temperatures drop below freezing all across the state.

The Weather Bureau warned Nebraskans of both frost and freezing during the early morning hours Wednesday.

The Lincoln temperature scooted to 35 during the predawn hours Wednesday.

Highs Wednesday are expected to reach the 50s east to the lower 60s in the west.

Overnight lows dipped to a chill 25 at Chadron Tuesday as Sidney received the state's first snowfall of the season. Lincoln Air Force Base had the state high, such as it was, of 57. Lincoln had a high of 55 and a low of 44.

State GOP Challenges Modern Republicanism

. . . Move Has National Significance

By Don Walton

The Nebraska Republican Party has taken the lead in issuing a direct challenge to the so-called Modern Republicanism practiced by the Eisenhower administration and its supporters.

In a move of national significance, the state GOP is out to prove that within its conservative nature lies the cure to present Republican ills across the nation.

State party leaders have buckled down to the task of proving the popularity of old-style Republican conservatism by aiming at another GOP sweep (by huge margins, they hope) in Nebraska in the face of what seems to be a national Democratic trend.

To Prove Point

They believe that if they can achieve wide victories in this state while elsewhere (from Maine to California, it would seem) less-conservative Republicans are falling, they will have proved their point.

GOP state leaders could then be expected to gain considerable influence in national party councils, particularly in the national committee where party policies are formulated.

At present, they believe they have a strong arguing point for Nebraska Republicanism.

It goes like this:

Nebraska borders on 5 states—South Dakota, Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas and Iowa.

Every one of those states has at least one Democratic congressional representative; 3 of the 5 states have Democratic governors.

Nebraska remains all-Republican (although it nearly lost that political composition in 1956 when Democrat Larry Brock of Wakefield narrowly missed upsetting incumbent Rep. Robert Harrison of Norfolk.)

Demos Represented

The present Democratic statistics: South Dakota, one representative; Wyoming, one senator; Colorado, one senator, two representatives and governor; Kansas, one representative and governor; Iowa, one representative and governor.

Why is it that Democrats have been successful in every bordering state but remain unable to crack the GOP hold in Nebraska? Conservative Nebraska Republicanism is the answer, party leaders say.

Nebraska Democrats have nominated their strongest slate of candidates in a long, long time this year; they have made an extra effort at fund-raising, and Democratic nominees have been on the prowl for votes for many a week.

Comprehensive Drive

To counter this strengthened challenge, state Republicans have organized their most comprehensive campaign caravan, reorganized the women's division to provide a bevy of GOP workers and formed a new, strengthened fund-raising arm of the party.

They have called in, for the most part, "their kind" of Republicans for state appearances: Gov. William Stratton of Illinois, Rep. Richard Simpson of Pennsylvania, Sen. Andrew Schoeppel of Kansas, Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire and Sen. Karl Mundt of South Dakota.

Nebraska voters could conceivably play a big role in remaking the Republican Party should they again choose an all-GOP lineup. If Democrats gain, the drive by state GOP chieftains could fall flat.

More eyes than usual will be focused on Nebraska results this fall.

Quesada New U.S. Air Boss

Heads Jet Age Safety Agency

Washington (AP) — Elwood R. (Pete) Quesada, a 54-year-old retired 3 star Air Force general who likes big game hunting, was picked Tuesday as the nation's first civilian aviation boss.

Quesada

President Eisenhower named Quesada, now his special assistant on aviation problems, to head the new federal aviation agency which Congress set up to help improve air safety and deal with the needs of the jet age.

The all-powerful agency will make and enforce safety rules for military, commercial and private flying. It will absorb the Civil Aeronautics Administration and the Airways Modernization Board, as well as some of the functions of the Civil Aeronautics Board. Quesada now heads the Airways Modernization Board.

Con May Have Fled Alcatraz

San Francisco (AP)—Guards, lowered on ropes, searched shoreline caves of Alcatraz Island for a missing convict.

But the FBI put out a nationwide alert—a concession that Aaron Walter Burgett, 28, Missouri gunman, just might have accomplished the unbelievable. That would mean a swim of more than a mile through cold, tide-swept waters of San Francisco Bay to the mainland.

Burgett vanished Monday. FBI Special Agent Webb Burke said:

"We can't assume anything. We've got to set up our leads assuming the worst . . . We've got to proceed with our investigation based on the possibility that he has left the island."

Burgett was all by himself in his daring attempt to get off "the rock." His convict companion, Clyde M. Johnson, 38, a Memphis, Tenn., bank robber, was captured two hours after they tied up a guard Monday afternoon and threatened him with a knife.

Johnson was found standing in the cold water along a shore of the island.

Warden Paul J. Madigan doubted whether Burgett could have reached the San Francisco shore although the convict is muscular, weighs 180 pounds and is 6 feet 2 inches tall.

Arctic Shots Fired

U.S. Says Tests Proof Of Russ Propaganda

Washington (AP)—Russia has resumed its nuclear weapons tests with at least two new blasts, the Atomic Energy Commission said Tuesday night.

The State Department promptly termed the resumption a confirmation of U.S. contentions that Russia's test suspension announcement of last March 31 was a propaganda stunt.

Nevertheless, the department said the United States will go ahead with its plans to suspend U.S. nuclear tests Oct. 31 unless Russia holds further nuclear explosions after that date.

The State Department, recalling Russia's announcement of last spring that it was discontinuing further testing, said in a statement:

"It was suspected at the time that the Soviet announcement was primarily a propaganda exercise and that there was no real intention to suspend testing. This now seems to be confirmed by the event."

Japanese scientists who announced earlier that they had detected a resumption of Soviet explosions put one blast in the megaton class, or equivalent to a million tons of TNT.

'High Yield'

The AEC also indicated the weapons were of substantial size. It said two detonations were detected and added:

"Both took place north of the Arctic Circle and were of moderate to high yield."

The development occurred after months of diplomatic jockeying over proposals for an international agreement to outlaw atomic and hydrogen weapons tests.

Six months ago, after winding up an extensive test series, the Russians announced they were suspending tests, but they left the way open for a resumption if the United States and Britain did not follow suit.

The western atomic powers balked at the time, on grounds that there had been no agreement on an effective detection system to make sure no one cheated.

Negotiations

Then on Aug. 22 this country and Britain said they would halt their tests for at least a year, starting on Oct. 31, provided the Russians would enter negotiations then on an international control network.

Both countries, however, said they intended first to complete tests they had scheduled.

Moscow has objected to the terms the western atomic powers laid down. On Sept. 18, Moscow Radio accused them of "simply forcing the Soviet Union to take back its word" on its own test ban.

The State Department noted that, on U.S. initiative, talks are scheduled to begin at Geneva on Oct. 31 to try to devise a means of reaching agreement on a nuclear test suspension under adequate safeguards.

On Schedule

The United States expects these negotiations to begin on schedule, the department said, and it added:

"Unless the Soviet Union holds further tests after negotiations have begun, the United States remains prepared to withhold further testing of atomic and hydrogen weapons for a period of one year from the beginning of the negotiations on Oct. 31."

2 Trailer Courts Get 2 Weeks To Comply

Health Dept. Favored More Time

By Del Harding

Additional two - week time extensions were granted by the County Board Tuesday to the operators of the Tower View Trailer Court at 2140 Adams and the Air Base Court on Rt. 2 so they can bring their courts up to required health standards.

Attorney Chauncey E. Barney, representing Tower View operator J. O. Philpott, and attorney William Grossman, representing Air Base Court operator Mrs. Homer Leland, reported to the Board on progress made so far. A report on both courts from the City-County Health Dept. recommended they be granted two more weeks to complete work on health problems, and the Board agreed.

The Board in August had ordered both courts closed because of their failure to meet health requirements. The Tower View has a sewage disposal problem and the Air Base Court a water supply problem.

Got One Week

Both courts and also the Center Court at 3300 No. 41st were granted one-week time extensions by the Board last week to report on their progress. No representative of the Center Court showed up Tuesday, and the Board took no action concerning it.

The Center Court reportedly has a zoning problem to iron out with the city.

In other action, the Board agreed to ask a State Attorney General's opinion to define zoning authority. The opinion was requested by a West Lincoln property owner, C. A. Bates, who claimed neither the city nor county has zoning authority over a proposed trailer court site he owns.

Bates claims that West Lincoln has such authority within a half-mile radius of its village limits.

Asks Meeting

Another request by Commissioner Del Lienemann to call the Board of Equalization into session to deal with what he has termed "questionable" personal property tax returns failed when neither Commissioner Rollin Bailey nor Commissioner Russell Brehm would second Lienemann's motion.

Lienemann has been issuing a series of reports on what he says apparently are improper tax returns submitted by some of the county's business firms.

Brehm and Bailey have said they want to await the report of a recently-established citizen's committee which is studying the county tax situation before taking any action.

'Good Fellow'

Bailey told Lienemann the only results of "the fodder" (the tax reports) which he has been feeding State Sen. Terry Carpenter is "that he (Carpenter) thinks I'm a good fellow."

Bailey was referring to a Monday remark by Carpenter, who is making a state-wide tax investigation, that he has nothing personally against the 3 Lancaster County Commissioners and thinks they're "good fellows."

But Carpenter had criticized them for failing to take action on alleged tax inequities in the county, and said Gov. Victor Anderson should remove them from office if they fail to act.

All Packed For An Historic Flight

Harry Brock of Chadron, a firm supporter of progress and air travel for more than 30 years, will be one of the happiest passengers aboard the first Frontier Airlines scheduled flight on the new Omaha-Casper, Wyo. run. He's going home after a long stay at Veterans Hospital, and ~~plans to promote even more airport expansion in his home~~-town. (Star Photo.)

Longtime Air Service Backer On Opening Run

...First Flight Passenger To Chadron

By Nancy Benjamin

When Frontier Airlines' first scheduled westbound flight leaves Lincoln Wednesday, it will be carrying to Chadron one of its firmest supporters.

Harry Brock, 67-year-old Nebraska native, will be returning to his home town after months in Lincoln hospitals, but he won't be talking about his operation—he'll be promoting progress, especially in air service.

Brock started his campaign to bring an airfield to Chadron back in 1928, when the first air mail runs from Omaha to Denver were being made by single-engined "puddle-jumpers."

In a speech 30 years ago to the Chadron Chamber of Commerce Brock urged the establishment of a municipal airport in Chadron, to aid pilots who needed additional landing sites for the run. Because of this speech, Brock is now on his way back to Chadron on a free ticket, this time to promote construction of an east-west runway at the field.

It happened this way:

Brock, who recently underwent amputation of his left leg because of an accident in 1957, was recuperating in the Veterans Hospital in Lincoln.

He read in the Chadron Record an item telling how 30 years ago he had made that speech for an airport, and went to show it to his friend.

His friend had visitors, including Kenneth Schriner of 2968 Orchard, who heard the story. Schriner went home and told the story of Brock's speech to his wife, who came up with the idea of writing the Mayor of Chadron and telling him about it.

Mayor H. L. Clark did the rest. He arranged reservations so that Brock could have his seat on the historic flight returning to Chadron, and organized a contribution to buy Brock a round-trip ticket.

When the news came that he was going home—and on the first scheduled air flight into his hometown—Brock admitted "I nearly fell off the bed."

He's full of plans for the month or two he plans to spend in Chadron. First there is some campaigning to be done on an upcoming vote to enlarge the airport, and then there's the hospital "which is the only thing that hasn't been modernized in the past 30 years."

He's going to tell his fellow citizens that the town must provide the necessary facilities and must support the Frontier service now it is established. "Use it or lose it," he said, quoting the new slogan coined by Chadron supporters of Frontier Airlines Chadron route.

"This is the finest thing that could have happened to Chadron," Brock repeated. "And we've got to support it."

Life Insurance Firm's President Has High Praise For Today's Youth

At a time when many speaking about the younger generation have little good to say, J. A. Zimmerman, president of Olympic National Life Ins. Co., said his work with young men has been a rich, rewarding experience.

A former Lincolnite, now of Seattle, Zimmerman is in his hometown to discuss the fate of his college fraternity, Phi Kappa, at the University of Nebraska. Besides being a charter member of the chapter he was recently elected national president.

Putting local fraternity matters aside, he told of his work with the national organization in which he works with both alumni and active chapter members. At national meetings both the alumni and actives sit down in separate groups to discuss fraternity problems.

To his suprise, he said, both groups seemed to come up with nearly the same solution to fraternity problems.

"So when you talk about the younger generation being off the beam to me, you're talking to the wrong man," Zimmerman said.

Phi Kappa, a Catholic fraternity, was chartered at the University in 1924. In 1936 the chapter was de-activated. The national organization is considering a merger with Theta Kappa Phi. The members of the old University chapter now must decide whether to remain inactive or rescind their charter.

Council Of Churches Sets Festival Of Faith Plans

Plans for a festival of Faith on Reformation Sunday, Oct. 26, were reviewed at the annual fall meeting of the Lincoln Council of Churches at the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday.

Dr. Arthur Miller of Montview Presbyterian Church, Denver, former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will be the featured speaker at the event to be held at Pershing Auditorium.

The Council also reviewed plans for 2 sponsored services Wednesday night before Thanksgiving and 2 Thanksgiving morning. The offering at the services will go to the world relief program of the Department of Church World Service of the National Council of Churches with particular emphasis on the distribution of surplus commodities.

Local Pastor

The Council suggested that Holy Week services this year feature a Lincoln pastor for the noon-day meditations instead of inviting a visiting speaker.

The Social Betterment Committee of the Council was directed along 2 lines: (1) following through in the area of race relations, especially in the Brown housing incident; and (2) making plans for church participation in enlighting members on 3 proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on at the November elections: (a) juvenile court; (b) management of state institutions: (c) legalizing bingo.

Hear Forum

As part of this program the Council listened to a forum discuss the 3 problems. It was headed by: Dr. Frank Court, juvenile courts; Dr. Richard Guilford, administration of state Institutions; and Rev. Theodore Johnson, bingo.

The committee also reported that Sherman Brown, whose house was set afire by an unknown arsonist early this year, was able to leave Lincoln with all of his financial obligations settled except for a mortgage on his car.

The Comity Committee reported that information has been assembled to study the needs of building a church in the area northeast of 56th and Holdrege. The study was prompted by the availability of land for a church site.

The Division of Christian Education reported promotion and plans for UNICEF observance in Lincoln are being made by the Community Planning Committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert Cohen who was appointed by the mayor.

NU Tribunal Hearings Can Be Public

The University of Nebraska Student Tribunal, the official student court, has voted to open hearings to the public upon the written request of the defending student according to the Daily Nebraskan, campus newspaper.

The Tribunal's rules for hearings specify that charges against a student must be filed by the Dean of the Division of Student Affairs or his representative. The Tribunal chairman will then set a hearing date and notify the charged student at least 5 days before the trial date.

If he desires, the defending student may be represented by counsel at the hearing. The Tribunal's ruling must be made within 30 days of the hearing.

Peace Prayers Called For By Ministers

The Lincoln Ministerial Assn. has called for a prayer for "a just and durable peace' in observing National Day of Prayer, proclaimed by President Eisenhower for Wednesday.

Many Lincoln churches will open their doors for special prayer services Wednesday.

Dr. Frederick Roblee, president of the Association urged the people of Lincoln, both in their homes and churches, to "observe with earnest prayer the National Day of Prayer for a just and durable peace."

President Eisenhower suggested Americans pray together for "divine guidance in our efforts to lead our children in the paths of truth. He also urged "That we may be humbly mindful that this nation, under God, arrived at its present position by the toil and sacrifice of many citizens who subordinated personal interests to the common welfare."

Inventory Listing Hit

ported to the committee that it had not listed for state tax purposes "over $800,000" in cash it held outside the State of Nebraska, and that it understood that such funds were not taxable.

The committee chairman urged the firm to ask for an attorney general's ruling on the matter, because he believed that such funds were taxable.

Carpenter said later it was his understanding, after contracting the attorney general's office on the matter, that cash held by a Nebraska corporation outside of the state was taxable as long as the firm owning such funds was a Nebraska resident.

Earlier Tuesday, Wayne Cooper, secretary-treasurer of Cushman Motor Works, told the senator his company operates in 4 states: Nebraska, Illinois, Wisconsin and Missouri, and that Nebraska "is the highest priced taxwise" of the 4 states.

Carpenter asked if this were from an "assessment" standpoint, and Cooper answered that other states had offered to "give us the ground and build our plant" as well as giving certain tax exemptions over a period of years, but stated that Cushman "just wants to do business in Nebraska."

The chairman asked Cooper his views on what could aid Nebraska's tax situation, and the Lincoln businessman answered that "taxing authority should be taken from the county level. '

'Need State Control'

"You will have to have a state control agency before you can get some of the equalization you talk about," Cooper added.

Agreeing with the idea of state control over taxing matters, Carpenter noted that since the Legislature establishes all of the laws on which county government operates, "it (the Legislature) has the power to remove all county assessors tomorrow if it wants to—but I don't advocate it."

The committee chairman said he had "yet to find a county assessor who would not welcome the state's telling him what to do."

Firms heard by the committee Tuesday were: Cornhusker Feed and Supply Co.; Cornhusker Television Corp.; L. L. Coryell & Son Bldgs., Inc.; Cushman Motor Works, Inc.; Fletcher-Mitchell Corp.; Gold & Co.; Gooch Feed Mill Co.; Gooch Food Products Co.; Gooch Milling & Elevator Co.; Griswold Seed Co.; Hallett Brothers Co.; Grainger Brothers Co.; Holland Lumber Co., all of Lincoln, and Hawkeye Building Supply Co., whose headquarters are at Sioux City, Ia.

Sen. Kefauver Boosts Morrison Candidacy

...'Will Help Battle Monopolies'

Terrytown, Neb. (AP)—U. S. Senator Estes Kefauver declared Tuesday night he would welcome Frank Morrison to the Senate in "a battle to curtail the growth of monopolies."

The Tennessee Democrat spoke at a Morrison-for-Senate rally in Terry's Arena. The Lincoln attorney is opposing Roman Hruska for Senate seat now held by the Omaha Republican.

Kefauver referred to Morrison as "a man of great personal integrity who has the breadth of backgorund necessary for anyone who must deal with the complex issues which beset our lawmakers."

"The seemingly inevitable trend toward bigness in our society," Kefauver said, "is of almost critical importance."

As chairman of the Senate anti-trust and monopoly subcommittee, he said he had investigated many giant corporations and found that it is often the consumer and little business man who must pay the price for their growth.

'Family Farm Threatened'

Keufauver said the family farm is threatened by corporation farm and "again it appears that the forces of bigness are on the move, only this time with the help of the government. Under the Benson agriculture program we have seen countless farmers driven to bankruptcy and forced to leave the farm."

Kefauver declared the rural electrification program is "fighting for its life against the attacks of its enemies operating primarily through the Eisenhower administration."

He said the administration has been attempting to reduce the supply of credit, increase interest rates and force the rural systems to go to Wall Street for all or part of their funds."

Western Electric Dispute Affects No Workers Here

Lincoln members of Communications Workers of America are not affected by a contract dispute between CWA and Western Electric, according to R. W. Rustermier Jr., president of Local 7460.

A scheduled strike in 33 cities of 10,000 "sales unit" workers against Western Electric has been postponed for a week, and 15,000 installers employed by the company in 44 states are also involved in the contract dispute.

The Lincoln Western Electric unit, however, is a manufacturing arm of the company and is not affected by the negotiations. Lincoln WE employes received a 5 to 7 cent an hour pay raise earlier this month.

Arraignment Next For Caril Fugate

Preliminary Hearing For Girl Waived

By Del Harding

Caril Ann Fugate's next court appearance probably will be Saturday or Monday when she is arraigned in Lancaster District Court on two murder charges.

As expected and as advised by her attorney, Caril waived a preliminary hearing on the charges Tuesday morning before Lancaster County Judge Herbert A. Ronin. The innocent plea to each charge she entered last Feb. 3 still stands.

County Atty. Elmer Scheele and District Judge Harry A. Spencer said they have not yet set the date for her District Court arraignment on the first degree murder and murder while in the perpetration of a robbery charges pending against her. But indications are it will be Monday, with Saturday morning the next most likely date.

Looks Trim

Contrary to reports that she had gained 20 pounds, Caril looked as trim as she did last Jan. 29 when she and her boy friend, Charles Starkweather, were captured in Douglas, Wyo., following a reign of terror which left 10 persons dead.

Gone was her pony tail, and her hair was short and stylishly curled. She wore no make-up and was quite pale. The 15-year-old girl was dressed in a light blue polished cotton dress, white long-sleeved cardigan sweater and black shoes with medium heels.

She showed only occasional signs of nervousness as she chatted briefly before the hearing with Merril Reller, law associate of her court-appointed attorney, John McArthur. She also talked with the wife of Sheriff Merle Karnopp, and smiled briefly several times.

'Yes, Sir'

When McArthur and Judge Ronin questioned her about her decision to waive the hearing she replied firmly but softly that "yes, sir," that was her wish. The hearing is a formality and is merely to establish that a crime has been committed and that there is probable cause that the person charged committed it.

After Judge Ronin bound Caril over to District Court for trial McArthur requested that he allow her to post bond and go free until her trial. But Scheele objected, McArthur did not press the point, and Judge Ronin denied the request.

Caril Fugate . . . hearing waived.

Only about 40 persons—including her father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. William Fugate, and her sister, Mrs. Barbara Von Busch—attended the hearing. There were about a dozen empty seats.

Back To Hospital

Following the hearing Caril was returned to the Lincoln State Hospital, where she has been held for safekeeping since January.

Her trial is expected to start Oct. 27 or Nov. 3, but no definite date will be set until she is arraigned before Judge Spencer.

Caril is charged in the death of 17-year-old Robert Jensen of Bennet, who was fatally shot last Jan. 27. Starkweather was convicted of the actual killing and was sentenced to death.

He is now awaiting the result of an appeal to the State Supreme Court.

Dad, Three Tots Killed In Blaze

Monroe, Wash. (AP)—A young father and 3 of his 7 children died in a fire which destroyed their isolated farm home.

The fire, touched off by a stove explosion, took the lives of Leo Stark, 30, and his 3 youngest children, Joanne, 3, Terry Lee, 2, and Timothy, 10 weeks.

Stark's wife, Arlene, 25, and 4 other children, Richard, 10, Roseanne, 6, Steven, 5, and Debra, 4, escaped.

The mother said her husband was trapped in a back bedroom while trying to save his children.

Varied Suggestions Are Given At School Redistricting Meet

Suggestions offered Tuesday night at a Lancaster County school redistricting meeting ranged from approval of present arrangements to charges that "our children are being short changed at this time."

Approximately 80 persons representing 27 districts in the county attended the meeting called by the Lancaster County Committee for Reorganization of School Districts.

Most of the discussion went to organization of rural high schools.

A member of the board at District 126 (West Lincoln) said "We have a levy of 57.99. We're ready for redistricting. Does anybody want us?"

A Bennet woman said children in that district are being short changed in spite of the fact that they have bus service and a hot lunch program. For the cost, she said, the children were not getting what they should.

She suggested a bigger district possibly including Panama, Hickman and Firth in a district 12 miles square in the southeast corner of the county.

A West Lincoln man told of individual investigation into a high school in the Yankee Hill district that would draw students from west and southwest of Lincoln as well as from farms.

Other suggestions were:

—Circulation of a questionaire among the boards of the districts to sound out feeling on reorganization.

—Formulation of plans with price tags to present as a starting place to final overall plan for the county.

—Increased use of school buses in spite of protests of the pupils.

—Door to door canvassing of districts to find out how much change people are willing to make.

2 Seriously Hurt In Headon Crash Near Beatrice

Lincoln Star Special

Beatrice, Neb. — Two persons were hospitalized with serious injuries here Tuesday afternoon as a result of a two-car collision 10 miles north of Beatrice on U. S. 77.

Mary M. Brown, 35, of 6936 Colfax, Lincoln, driver of one of the cars, received a broken pelvis bone and possibly other injuries. Fred Cook, 36, of Beatrice, driver of the second car, suffered a broken jaw, cuts and bruises and possible internal injuries.

The accident occurred about 3:45 p.m. when the northbound car, driven by Miss Brown, collided with Cook's southbound auto.

Reuther Confident On Pact

Detroit (AP)—United Auto Workers President Walter Reuther Tuesday arrived at what he called "a meeting of the minds" with Chrysler Corp. in an all-night bargaining session. But later Chrysler officials said they felt he was overly optimistic.

Reuther, smilingly expressing confidence of a quick settlement at the end of the gruelling session, left the Chrysler talks to his subordinates.

After a shave, he turned up in an hour to take over the union's negotiations with General Motors which faces a strike of its 250,000 UAW members at 10 a.m. Thursday if there is no settlement.

Went To Bed

Reuther worked with the negotiators during a session at General Motors, then went to bed at a downtown hotel.

Chrysler Vice President John D. Leary came out of the first Chrysler bargaining session after Reuther's exit and said:

"We've run into some difficulty. We lost ground if anything. These union negotiators don't seem to be in a position to settle this matter."

Asked if he meant the UAW team needed Reuther to make progress, Leary said: "I don't know who they need."

In an obvious reference to Reuther's "meeting of the minds" statement, Leary said, "we're not as close to a settlement as some people would have you think."

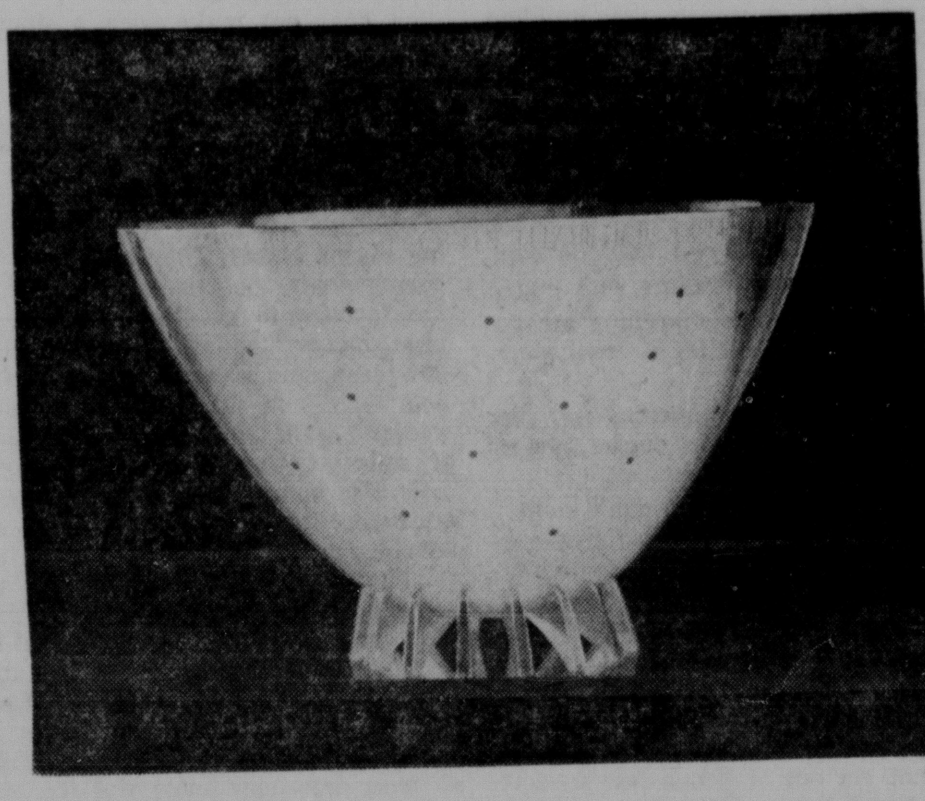
SILVER, FIRST FLOOR



Sterling Bowl Presented to Queen Elizabeth II

Climaxing their first official visit to London in 316 years, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts presented this silver bowl of special design and inscription to the Queen of England. The bowl is of silver with Plique a Jour enamel on the body, which means that small holes drilled through the silver have been filled with enamel, in this case emerald green. The inscription reads: "An offering to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, Captain General Honourable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, October, 1954." Bowl stands 8" high and is 11" in diameter . . . designed and made by Towle Silversmiths.

Cigar Box Presented to Sir Winston Churchill

One of Sir Winston's cigars was sent from England so that Towle could make the box the exact length of his cigars. Base of the box is ebony; a plaque on the box top is of cloisonne enamel in a rich range of colors. Engraved around the plaque is: "To the Right Honourable Sir Winston Spencer Churchill, K.G., O.M., C.H., to whom Anglo-American Friendship owes so much, with respect and admiration from the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, visiting the Honourable Artillery Company of London, October, 1954."

These replicas of the lovely pieces presented to Queen Elizabeth and Sir Winston Churchill have been loaned to Miller's for Design for Dining . . . they are rare and beautiful pieces you will delight in seeing.

Same Blurred Picture

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

The hearing now being conducted by Sen. Terry Carpenter's Legislative Tax Investigating Committee is giving the general public the same blurry picture of things that has been exhibited in the past. It is hard to see through all the talk to what the real issues are.

Flying Off At Tangents

Part of the trouble with any tax discussion is that it gets too far into the field of partisan politics. Carpenter, for instance, blasted the Lancaster County Board for what he said was failure to assume its responsibilities. He said that the governor should have removed from office the two commissioners who are charged with this failure. Even if Carpenter is right, why waste time with such a discussion? Can you imagine a Republican governor removing from office a Republican county chairman who is also a county commissioner for anything so complicated and misunderstood as Nebraska's tax situation?

In this respect, it is just coincidence that both men are Republicans. No Democratic governor would oust a Democratic county chairman from public office for such a reason, either. We certainly agree that the Lancaster County Board took the easy way out on a tax problem but that is hardly grounds for removal from office, except by the voters.

★

Oddly enough, the only Lancaster County commissoner who was not a party to the personal property study committee farce has already been defeated by the voters. Commissioner Del Lienemann, who opposed the study committee, was beaten in the primary.

Commissioner Russell Brehm, Lancaster County Republican chairman, is not running for re-election and Commissioner Rollin Bailey is not up for re-election. But Lancaster County is not the only place in which politics enters the picture. Other issues are used to approach the problem which are as far-fetched as the demand for removal from office.

The old clap-trap about Gov. Victor E. Anderson using a National Guard plane for private business or pleasure was used by Democratic State Chairman Russell Hansen of Newcastle. Since the governor was transported to the Nebraska-Purdue football game last Saturday by such a plane, it is argued that he has no regard for the taxpayers' money.

We wish the Democrats a lot of luck this year in Nebraska but they won't have it that way. If the governor is to be criticized, it should be on an honest difference of opinion, not an insignificant and misrepresented detail. We believe the state tax situation is a mess and that Gov. Anderson has not assumed the leadership that is required to correct the situation.

But this has nothing to do with the Purdue trip by a National Guard plane. The trip which included the stop at Lafayette, Ind., was being made by the governor to attend a nationwide National Guard conference in New Jersey. The Indiana stop was not out of the way and we doubt if the event cost the taxpayers a penny.

Sadly Out Of Balance

What should concern every public official, every candidate for public office and every voter are the inequity and injustice of our tax system. As Carpenter's hearings have shown, returns from most large concerns show a wide variance in the reporting of taxable assets. This lack of uniformity has cost the state a lot of tax revenue and has resulted in a mill or tax levy of such magnitude that honest tax reporting is almost out of the question. Some firms would probably be wiped out of business if they made an honest tax return.

These firms don't have dishonesty as a basis for their operations. They are simply caught in an impossible situation where they not only can't, but wouldn't know how to make a thoroughly honest report if they wanted to. It is hoped that the campaigning prior to the November election does not make such a shambles out of important tax issues that all the facts are buried and the chances for improvement lost.

No Buster, Not The Martians

If distant gunfire at dawn this morning aroused you from your dreams with startling thoughts of Martians marching on the city—be reassured. Don't let it spoil your breakfast.

The noise marked the opening of the hunting season, that is for ducks, geese and grouse.

How big will the bag be? We don't know. The state game department says the game is out there in better than usual numbers, and so will be the hunters.

But we can say that such game as is brought home will be more expensive than the equivalent bought at the market, but much more joyfully shopped for. And we can also say that the huntsman who somehow could not get out of bed a few weeks ago early enough to mow the lawn or fix the clothesline will be having no trouble over early rising from now until the hunting season closes. They may have been tinkering with the air conditioner or even the furnace to get the perfectly comfortable indoor feeling, but the same will now crouch in freezing duck blinds by the hour and love it. And the fellow who wouldn't walk two blocks to pick up a quart of milk at the store will gladly trudge over 800 bumpy acres in one windswept afternoon for a chance shot at a disappearing grouse.

Which is to say that men like to hunt.

But of those who cannot get to the fields and blinds we can say that the opening of the hunting season is an equally sure sign to them that fall is here. The storm windows must go on. The flower garden has to be got ready for winter and one of these days now snow will fly.

All in all its been a great summer, a rewarding and enjoyable one. We are all sorry to see it ending.

Comes The Reconciliation

A day of reckoning can always be looked for when all the opposites are stacked up side by side to see which way the scales tip. It may not be a day of reckoning, but it will be a time for hard reconciliation of principles if the Legislature is faced this January with a proposal for state aid to education.

Such a proposal is likely to find its way into the legislative hoppers, as evidenced by action of 11 different educational organizations. These 11 organizations got together in an effort to formulate a legislative program. A suggested area for legislation at this meeting was state aid to education, at the rate of $75 per pupil per year.

The idea is nothing new in educational circles. The principle of aid from one governmental subdivsion to another, likewise, is not new to the Legislature. But this body of representatives has gone on record as opposed to the principle, at least as it applies to federal aid to states. We in Nebraska have been viewed, as a matter of fact, with some misgivings by those who saw us condemning the aid theory but asking for all we could get in some areas.

Now, the Legislature will be called upon to adopt an aid program for the schools. It will be the kind of aid, too, that does away with the objections some of our lawmakers and others have to such handouts. There will be no strings attached to the deal. The schools will want the money scot-free of any accounting or any specific proof of need.

This isn't intended to knock a state aid to education plan, but rather, to show the absurdity of positions in which we find ourselves now and then. There is nothing wrong with state aid to education in itself. If it results in getting those things done which are needed, it has served a good purpose. By the same token, a great many things in Nebraska which we all want would never have been accomplished without federal aid.

Farm Bureau Advice

This fall the corn farmers will be called upon to make a choice between restrictive acreage allotments at price supports based on parity or raising all the corn they wish at a price support not based on parity, but upon an average of the past three year's open market prices.

This week the influential American Farm Bureau threw its weight behind the second of the two alternatives. It said the allotment-parity program is already discredited by the fact that the farmers in a majority and growing number of instances have not participated in it.

It is true that 60 per cent of Nebraska's bumper corn crop this year was grown out of compliance. But it is a shaky logic to assert that this proves the corn farmer wants no part of the parity principle with attached acreage control. It rather means that the terms offered by the Benson administration have been so progressively onerous that the producer had to flee to save his economic life.

The current question it seems is not what the corn producer would like, but whether he will be herded into the starving pen or the killing pen.

The advice of the Farm Bureau is tarnished by the recollection that in 1952 and for a year or so thereafter it advocated the Benson formula of declining flexible price supports (based on parity) as the solution to overproduction and the farm depression. It was as positive then that parity supports and acreage allotments were ineffably good as it now says they are villainously bad.

Before the Nebraska farmer yields to the blandishments of the Bureau and to his own desire to grow huge uninhibited crops he had better view the new proposal less in the light of once-over allurement and more greatly into whither all this is leading on the morrow.

It is certain that once the parity principle is withdrawn from the price structure prices will chase themselves downward and so will farm property values. In the end there will be no survivors save the exceptionally heavy producers and the large acreage operators. The 40 bushel average farmer on the family sized farm will have to lock up shop.

"And The Best Part Is That He's Paying Us For The Ride"

DREW PEARSON

Not In The Spirit Of Horatio Alger

WASHINGTON—This begins a month of political debate and controversy on which depends the quality of American democracy. Between now and November 4, the American people have to read about, hear about, sometimes get fooled about the men they will pick to run the nation. On whether they are fooled or educated, whether they see through the campaign talk or understand the straight talk, will depend the honesty of government after election day.

In an effort to penetrate the oratorical facades and the political tinsel, this column will report some of the facts that don't appear on the surface during the election campaign.

Here is one situation affecting the third biggest electoral state in the union — Pennsylvania — which has elected Republican governors in all except three cases since the Civil War.

In an effort to continue that tradition, the Republican high command this year picked a relatively unknown pretzel manufacturer, Arthur T. McGonigle, in preference to Harold Stassen, hard-working aide to President Eisenhower and negotiator for disarmament. McGonigle was publicized as a self-made, clean-cut businessman who would bring a businesslike government to the state of Pennsylvania. He was promoted as a "sound" man who had come up the hard way, in contrast to Stassen who, though former president of the University of Pennsylvania, was too liberal a Republican.

McGonigle is stocky, ruddy, pleasant and personable. He looks successful and he likes to talk about his success story.

"I managed to scrape together $300 and my brother Ray got the same amount," McGonigle said of himself in a highly laudatory article published by the Philadelphia Inquirer September 21 which told how McGonigle got his business start. "And with some very necessary help from a bank," he continued, "we took over."

That, however, was not exactly the circumstance under which the GOP candidate for governor of Pennsylvania got his start as a prosperous pretzel magnate and head of Bachman Bakeries. Republican leaders who fought Stassen and picked McGonigle have been quaking in their boots lest the true facts leak out. Some of them now wish they'd stuck to Stassen.

It happens that the true facts are a matter of court record and therefore not subject to argument. They show that McGonigle's business start was by no means the American success story, but that pretzel manufacturer McGonigle got so twisted making a success of pretzels that he, his brother and their associates had to cough up $186,500, plus $50,000 in attorney's fees.

GOP Said To Lack The Will To Win

SAN FRANCISCO — With brutal candor the Washington wire column of the Wall Street Journal has said that depressed Republicans "lack the will to win" the forthcoming congressional elections.

A certain poetic justice adheres to the use of the quoted phrase, for it was created by the Eisenhower secretary of state, John Foster Dulles, to indict Democratic policy in the Korean war and was inserted into the 1952 Republican platform. It still rankles among Democrats and prevents them from feeling quite that sympathy for the administration which its present foreign policy dilemmas merit.

It does accurately suggest a kind of demoralization about which Republicans actually on the firing line complain. They find themselves all too often burdened with feuds and factions, money shortages and utter indifference—all in addition to the normal burden of campaigning.

Nowhere is this more apparent than in California—a fact which has now dawned on the White House.

☆ ☆ ☆

Vice-President Richard M. Nixon heads west this week to try to shore up his home state defenses now and for 1960. President Eisenhower will soon follow and spend at least two days here. All the Republican candidates want them to come and are confident that their receptions will be outwardly more than adequate.

But in marked contrast to the fairly recent past, nobody expects either man to pass any miracles. Each is believed to have lost ground in the leadership roles they originally staked out for themselves. Also, the issues present in the campaign are in shapes stubbornly awkward and unmanageable.

The President's task is to achieve a politically serviceable explanation of the foreign policy which finds marines and paratroopers flitting in and out of the Middle East while the Navy and the Air Force help Chinese Nationalists on islands a stone's throw from the Red China mainland.

On this issue Republicans are stuck in an unenviable middle. Their old cry of peace is untenable but they do not have the advantage of being able to wave the flag and rally the troops as in a hot war situation. Any discussion, of course, emphasizes that the cruel dilemmas exist and are not going to go away.

Press comment on them here is not hostile but it is at best reserved. At one point the "hard" Eisenhower line toward Red China would have been definitely helpful to Senator William F. Knowland, who is now trying to be the next Republican governor. But Knowland has not been saying much about China in his campaign.

What Knowland does stress—the right-to-work bill, which is on the ballot—presents a problem both for Eisenhower and Nixon. The President will be asked whether he sides with Knowland or with the GOP Senate candidate, Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, who opposes right-to-work. An informed guess is that the President will insist it's a matter for the states.

MARQUIS CHILDS

Ghost Of Korea Haunts Republicans

WASHINGTON — The dilemma in which the Republican administration finds itself over Quemoy and Matsu is cruel, indeed, and it helps to explain why Vice-President Richard M. Nixon, usually so astute, got so far off base in attacking the State Department.

In the talks that have been going on at Warsaw Red China's ambassador Wang Ping-nan has been throwing up at America's Ambassador Jacob Beam every evidence of lack of support for the Dulles-Eisenhower stand on Quemoy. He has read statements of public figures and commentators to show that the public in the United States is not behind the official policy.

At the same time as the election campaign warms up the question of possible involvement in war over the offshore islands is likely to figure more and more as an issue. By every indication, including the thousands of letters coming to the State Department, the public is skeptical, if not openly hostile, toward any defense of the islands that would draw this country into a war with mainland China.

Quite apart from the merits of the case and administration insistence that this is another Berlin on which the fate of the free world turns, to assume that this can be kept out of politics is expecting too much of human nature. Though memories are short, the parallel with the Korean war and the 1952 campaign is too recent.

☆ ☆ ☆

That war, into which the Chinese Communists were throwing masses of men, was intensely unpopular. Each week there were thousands of American casualties. The Truman administration, in order to try to prevent the war from spreading, prohibited the use of atomic weapons and bombing across the Yalu river—the "privileged sanctuary" that caused such a bitter reaction.

The Republicans in '52 made Korea one of their chief issues. The formula of attack that they came up with was—Korea, Communism and Corruption. General Eisenhower himself in extemporaneous remarks to midwestern trainside audiences said that midwestern farm boys should stay home on the farm and let Asians fight Asians. At the climax of his campaign he promised to go to Korea to try to find a way to bring the war to an end and this pledge was widely hailed.

In the '52 campaign Nixon worked hard to pin the label of "war party" on the Democrats. He said that the Truman administration depended on war for " 'prosperity' that rests on the tired, bloody backs of 100,000 American boys crouching in the fox holes of Korea." The Truman administration, he said in Harrisburg, Pa., at the peak of the campaign, "fears peace."

As president-elect, General Eisenhower did go to Korea and later he got a peace settlement on terms that the Truman administration had previously rejected. There was no doubt of the popularity of this move, although a few bold spirits — Senator William Knowland of California among them—charged that the settlement amounted to a surrender to Communism.

The issue in Nixon's charge of "sabotage" against a State Department subordinate for releasing information showing that 80 per cent of the letters to the department opposed the policy on Quemoy is more than merely political. It involves the right of free expression in a Democratic society and whether we are to sacrifice that right in the struggle with Communism — in short, whether in that struggle we are to become more and more like the totalitarian enemy.

No sensible person would argue that foreign policy can be based on opinion polls, since often unpopular decisions must be taken. But at the same time public opinion must be a factor in reaching those decisions. As James Reston pointed out in his rebuttal of Nixon's charge, the Eisenhower administration has repeatedly referred to the public response in letters and telegrams when the response was favorable. The congressional record shows that at the height of the uproar over General MacArthur's dismissal as commander in Korea Nixon, then a senator, said on the floor of the Senate that he had received 500 telegrams and only one of them was favorable to President Truman.

The responsibilities of power in a time like this and in a democracy such as ours are grim. But that responsibility is not lessened by attempting to suppress the facts of the current trend of opinion. To try to suppress it is in a sense a confession of failure.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Our sincere thanks for the excellent news and publicity coverage which The Lincoln Star gave our recent Lincoln Youth Jamboree. The 1958 Youth Jamboree was even more successful than last year's event, and The Star did a splendid job of reporting on this activity, giving the results of the competitions it involved, etc.

It is through such fine cooperation that it is a fine and totally rewarding experience to do business in the Capital City.

Judgment

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: One wonders if Roger Walters is alluding to the coming trial and fishing for sympathy. I am sure there are now two of the courts he refers to. Children are considered so only as long as they conduct themselves as such. When they by choice become involved in actions so brutal that hard-boiled adults pale, then who can consider them as children? How could they possibly expect to be judged as youthful pranksters?

Grandparents can pass on to their grandchildren no richer advice than they gave their own children. To have failed there, who are they to advise or console?

There also comes a limit to correction or trying to make over. Is anyone trying to kid himself that you can eat a rotten egg with pleasure?

Today there may be a wailing in fear, but none in sorrow for the atrocities committed.

James Daffer

Central City, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I grew up with James Daffer down on the plains of southwest Nebraska and northwest Kansas. We herded cattle together several hot summers just after the turn of the century. In the 60 years I knew him, we never had an argument. Later he married and raised and educated a large family, and accumulated some 900 to 1,000 acres of good valley and upland wheat land. As is often the case, just when he could take it easy, he was struck down. That was about a year and a half ago. My last visit with him and his good wife was here in Central City about two years ago, and some of the predictions he made at that time have already come true.

He told me about the stubborn mule he had that would roll his big soft eyes when he wanted oats ("voats"), but after he got them, look out or you would get it in the seat of the pants before you got out of the stall. It was a case of one-mule rule. The other silly mules thought he was something sacred.

I miss Jim Daffer and his letters to The Lincoln Star.

Musical Sedative

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I am in Lincoln in a rest home. During the past two months, I've spent seven weeks in a hospital. This is not an expression of self-pity, just a request from everyone in a similar way of life.

In one southern town I know of, a radio station there each evening plays uninterrupted music, good music, for a half hour. It is not rock and roll, and not highbrow, but just nice clean restful music. The folks in hospitals and at home or wherever they may be watch and wait for this 30 minutes. It often does more good than any sedative. There are no commercials, but it just goes from one piece to the next.

Couldn't Lincoln do something like this?

Doing Without

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Congratulations to "R. B." for his concise and penetrating analysis of the Nebraska political situation. The ideas expressed in his letter in the Sept. 24 Star should be given the widest possible publicity and distribution by the Democratic party and its candidates in Nebraska during the remaining time before the election.

Nebraska is being by-passed by economic growth and development. A recent study by the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City (Monthly Review, March, 1957) showed that, using personal income, retail sales and population as measures of economic growth, Nebraska lags behind the neighboring states of Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico Colorado, and Wyoming. These states are not more bountifully endowed with natural resources than Nebraska but have been blessed with courageous, progressive economic and political leadership. It is also interesting to note that all these states have a state sales or income tax, or both. There is tattle-tale gray all over the "white spot."

The people of Nebraska should be characterized as the "beat" population, suffering from severe mental depression from our politicians hammering that "we're a poor state" — "we can't afford it" — "hard-tack budgets" — and "hold the line." We listen to this, vote Republican election after election, and get just the kind of state government and federal representation that we deserve. And so we do without — without good schools, without adequate police protection, without decent roads and streets, without parks and recreational facilities, without industrial development, without employment opportunities for our young people, etc. etc.

The success of government of, by and for the people depends upon an informed, interested and active citizenry. There is an important election coming up in a few weeks — another opportunity for the voters of Nebraska to make some long overdue changes. Well, Nebraska voters, what are you going to do — confirm the prediction of the pollsters and continue to make Nebraska the political laughing-stock of the nation, or show that courage, initiative, foresightedness and progressiveness are not dead in this state?

OFF THE RECORD By Ed. Reed

"Teacher said she finally figured out my trouble — it's heredity!"

Stan Delaplane's POSTCARD

A fine sunny day in New York. Nature co-operating fully with our age of scientific marvels.

My miracle fiber shirt has dried overnight. And I am tranquilized by miracle drugs. I imagine even an electronic brain feels sharper on a day like this.

☆ ☆ ☆

Well, it is marvelous to report that Science, having made war too horrible to fight, is now making football too horrible to play.

This was demonstrated today by a company making recorders, video tape and such wonders.

There were some 20-odd magazine and sports writers when I arrived at Grand Central Station offices of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith.

Three TV screens were running a quiz program. A waiter in a white coat passed coffee. And a half dozen public relations men ran through this broken field, swivelhipped and shifty.

☆ ☆ ☆

The screens shifted suddenly to football plays. And Mr. Ken Macker, the public relations man, stood up wired for sound.

He said we would now see how the Los Angeles Rams whupped the San Francisco 49ers.

Well, said Mr. Macker, Coach Sid Gillman was sitting around. Thinking up ways of blood and slaughter. When it came into his mind that he could wrap up the opponents in video tape.

Video tape is just about like sound tape on your tape recorder. Only in this case, you run the tape back on a TV screen and you get the picture.

What did Foxy Gillman do but video tape the whole first half of the Rams-49ers game. As soon as a play was over, they simply ran the tape back and over again.

Up in the Coliseum in Los Angeles, three Ram coaches looked over these re-runs several times. Then they phoned down all the strategy the 49ers were using. And a substitute ran out on the field and told the Rams just what was going on.

☆ ☆ ☆

This was all demonstrated to us. Using the actual snooping film the Ram coaches used.

At half time, they cut the important sections of the tape and showed it to the Ram players.

The tape may show what the other side is doing. But it also shows what you are doing.

A player may explain: "My foot slipped. Likewise the tackle tripped me."

The coach then runs back the tape. It shows the offender giving a quick gander at some little goose in the stands. While the ball sails by.

☆ ☆ ☆

Anyway, it was a fine demonstration of Monday morning quarterbacking that can be done while the game is not half over.

Mr. Jack Mara who owns the New York Giants was in the audience. He said it might revolutionize the game. But what if the other side got a machine, too?

"Like when we wired our quarterback with a helmet radio," he said. "It worked fine. Then Cleveland wired THEIR quarterback. Then we found out we could build a receiver and tune in on their signals."

Finally the commissioners decided this was TOO electronic. They unwired everybody.

At the end of the demonstration, Mr. Macker got Coach Gillman on the long distance phone. He spoke from Los Angeles through a loud speaker. He said this was the greatest thing in football since the Statue of Liberty play.

And at this point, the operator lost the connection.

Frost Expected To Doom 'Encephalitis' Mosquitoes

The coming of frost and the cold weather may ease the fear of the dreaded encephalitis (sleeping sickness) disease, State Health Diretor E. A. Rogers said.

A frost, he explained, will wipe out most of the mosquito population in Nebraska and thus eliminate one of the prime causes of the disease.

The disease is caused by a virus that lives on birds and is transmitted to humans through the bite of a particular type of mosquito which feeds at dusk.

One New Case

One new encephalitis case, reported from Grant in Perkins County, brought the total number of cases reported this year to 24, compared with 5 at this time a year ago.

Dr. Rogers said the number of cases reported "was a long ways from an epidemic situation" and rather falls in the year to year variations expected.

The greater number of cases on the records this year could be the result of better reporting to the Health Department, he said, because of more public interest and awareness of the disease.

With the advent of cold weather, he said, the majority of the virus-transmitting mosquitoes will be killed but a few will survive in sheltered areas such as barns or other buildings. Also, a few eggs may survive the winter. These will make up the breeding population next year.

The mosquito situation had caused concern this year because of the numbers breeding in marshy areas left by heavy rains during the summer.

Major China Policy Shift Heralded

Dulles Says Will Try To Trim Chiang Forces If Reds Quit

By The Associated Press

Washington (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles Tuesday heralded a possible major shift in America's China policy. He offered to try to trim Nationalist military strength in the offshore islands if the Communists quit shooting.

Dulles told his news conference Chiang Kai-shek was foolish to commit one-third of his Nationalist armed forces to Quemoy and the other offshore islands now being pounded by Red artillery.

The secretary dashed cold water on Chiang's oft-repeated determination to wrest the China mainland from the Communists. Dulles said Chiang's return "is a high hypothetical matter."

"I don't think that just by their own steam they are going to get there," the secretary said, adding under questioning that the United States has "no commitment of any kind to aid in that."

The existence of Nationalist China on Formosa, Dulles said, could be importand if an anti-Communist revolution developed on the mainland. Chiang could then offer help, he said, but is "hypothetical and problematical" whether Chiang would be asked to head an anti-Communist revolutionary regime.

This was the first time any high level U.S. official ever publicly cast doubt on hopes of Chiang's return to the mainland from which he was driven 9 years ago by the Communists.

Dulles even had a word to say on behalf of the Chinese Communists, saying any Formosa Strait cease-fire would have to be reciprocal on Chiang's part.

"It would be obviously quite impractical and quite wrong to ask the Chinese Communists to abandon use of force if they were being attacked by te Chinese Nationalists," he said.

Dulles' words were not strong enough to be taken as U.S. acceptance of two Chinas, or even of a policy shift already decided upon. But his conciliatory approach indicated movement toward a possible basis for negotiation at U.S.-Red China ambassadorial talks in Warsaw.

Dulles said something must be done to make any cease-fire dependable. The Communists' word is not enough since they break it at will, he said.

Survival Depends On U.S. Education, Dr. Watkins Says

Our survival will largely depend upon American education's ability to meet the Russian challenge, Dr. Steven N. Watkins, city superintendent of schools, said Tuesday.

"We have freedom and wide-awake citizens," Dr. Watkins said in a luncheon meeting address to the Lincoln Rotary Club. "If we can get support for education, we can outrun the Russians."

But, the speaker listed several needs he termed "very essential" for education to meet the challenge.

Advancement Needed

—Schools need to make a tremendous advancement in use of teaching aids. We need to be alive to speed in teaching. Today's 6th grader knows more than his 1925 counterpart, but the 1975 student will need to know even more.

—Different educational programs are needed for different children. The fact that only 50% of the upper 25% of high school students go on to college "is a loss that we cannot afford."

—Students need better guidance if a better education program is to be developed. Education, the parent and the child must be brought closer together.

—Development of an education program is needed that will develop each child to his full potential—on the upper end of the scale as well as the lower.

Rude Awakening

The speaker termed the "rude awakening of the Sputnik challenge" to this country's supremacy a "good thing for public interest in schools."

In other remarks, Dr. Watkins noted school enrollment increased from 13,000 to 22,600 during the past 8 years while population grew only from 85,000 to 125,000.

The 80-to-85% growth is "above the national average," he said. "A leveling-out is not in sight. There is a potential 3,600 kindergarteners for 1962 as compared with 2,266 which entered this year."

During the past 8 years, the school budget increased to $7.8 million from slightly over $2 million, he said. About 80% of the budget is for salaries.

Safety Patrol Asks More Money And Patrolmen

The Nebraska Safety Patrol wants more money and more men in the next biennium.

A budget request incorporating a proposal for 50 additional troopers was on file Tuesday with the state tax commissioner's office.

The document asked $4,451,334 for the 1959-61 biennium.

A total of $3,180,186 was appropriated for the patrol's 1957-59 biennium.

The increased amount requested reflects several factors, according to an accompanying note from Col. C. J. Sanders, patrol head.

Death Rate Noted

The note said the patrol would need an additional 50 uniformed officers due to, among other things, the increased Nebraska highway fatality and accident rate, and to prospects that segments of the Interstate soon would be opened.

Cost of adding the troopers for a 21-month period would total $759,989.

Col. Sanders said he proposed no change in the 10-hour-a-day, 6 day work week for troopers, but pointed out that were the patrol to put a 48-hour week in force, an additional 33 troopers at a cost of about $515,000 for the period would be required.

The budget incorporates a $25 monthly pay raise for uniformed officers—raising the starting pay from $350 to $375 per month—and such items as more automobiles, some radio equipment, and a longevity program designed to encourage troopers to become career men by offering them graduated pay increases.

Currently, top scale totals $1.53 per hour for a trooper. The pay boost would increase his hourly pay by 10 cents.

In order to give service to all enforcement agencies in the northside of Nebraska and Highway 20, two base or fixed stations will be needed, one at Ainsworth, the other at Rushville, the note said.

City Building Permits Hit $1.4 Million

September building permits totalled $1,402,811, bringing the year's total to $10,631,938 so far or about $1.2 million ahead of 1957 building pace.

Building Inspector E. A. Vorhees' office reported permits for 77 residential units were issued during the month as compared with 60 a year ago.

These included 63 single-family residences, $746,812; 4 duplexes, $43,629, and a 6-unit apaartment building, $45,411.

Largest permit was for the new Nebraska Wesleyan University Student Union, estimated to cost $327,000.

Other major construction for month was a $20,000 church addition and a $35,000 store building.

There were 209 permits totalling $1,402,811 issued during September as compared with 190 amounting to $1,387,416 for a year ago.

ANTI-FROST MEASURES LISTED FOR TENDER PLANTS, FLOWERS

Persons can protect flowers and other plants from nightly frosts by observing a few simple precautionary rules, Fred A. Gowen, assistant professor of horticulture at the University of Nebraska said Tuesday.

"Old canvas or even an old coat can be draped across the plant to protect them from the cold," said Gowen, "but these coverings must be taken off promptly the next morning so the plant will not suffocate or suffer other injury."

Strawberry plants can likewise be preserved until winter definitely sets in, Gowen said, but then the plants should be covered with mulch for protection until spring. "However, premature coverings of mulch will cause the plant to become soft and may injure or even kill the plant," he added.

More Children, Fewer Families Pinching School Dollar

By Nancy Benjamin

Fewer families mean fewer taxpayers.

Bigger families mean more school children.

Fewer taxpayers and more school children mean bigger headaches for the Lincoln public schools.

The weighty problem or problems were reviewed at length at the Lincoln School Board sessions Tuesday as latest enrollment figures showed 22,413 public school children this fall—about 1,000 more than last year's enrollment and about 500 less than 1957 school census figures estimated for the 1958-59 term.

After a June, 1958 census was taken by the schools the earlier estimate was revised to 22,250, from the June, 1957 estimate of 23,037 public school pupils this fall.

Not Really A Miss

"We weren't really missing a guess when we estimated the number of children last year," Watkins said. "Our estimates then (1957) for this fall term were based on an actual count of people, and the assumption that as many families move into Lincoln as move out."

"The records finally showed that we had more people moving out of town when we took the June (1958) census, and we immediately revised our enrollment figures and cut back on our teacher recruitment program."

But, he added, "the figures show we are losing more families than we gain, and the loss in employment in Lincoln is showing up in our school figures for the first time."

Based on the estimate of .8 of a school-age child per family the 1957 census figures show a loss of 624 students expected this fall or a loss of approximately 770 families with school-age children. Final enrollment figures will be tallied in October.

Dr. Watkins said that this "means these students and their parents have apparently left town during the past year."

The immediate problem of enrollment settled, board members ranged to other future problems—including the fact that by 1961 enrollment is expected to nearly double public schools enrollment figure of 14,717 in 1952.

Dr. Paul Bancroft, board member, pointed out that perhaps the number of family units is shrinking, but the number of children per family is expanding, and has been for some time

This results in the larger school-age population with a smaller number of taxpaying adults, the school board was informed. And the "baby boom" is still increasing with the largest crop still below kindergarten age.

"Our school services will have to be doubled without a doubling in the tax base," Dr. Watkins commented.

Some of the outcomes of the present population increase in suburban areas was noted by the board with warnings by Dr. Watkins that "we will have to do something to meet the school needs in the East Park Manor, Eastridge developments, and eventually build a school east of Holmes" (52nd and Sumner).

Temporary buildings at Brownell School also must be replaced "sooner or later," Watkins pointed out.

School Enrollment To Go Up

A revised estimate of future public school enrollments in Lincoln demonstrates the need for increased school space and teacher recruitment.

Although present enrollment figures are less than expected, an estimate of future student enrollments at the Lincoln public schools shows an expected increase of a 1,300 to 1,500 pupil increase yearly.

The projection table, based on student census figures on June 4, 1958, and secondary schools Oct. 4, 1957 shows:

	Elementary		Junior High		Senior High		Total

Youngsters Eat More At School

Youngsters' appetites at the Lincoln Schools lunch counters saved school administrators from having to raise food prices last year.

Financial reports for the school lunchrooms showed that balances were only $4,731.57 below 1957 figures, a much smaller drop than officials had expected, School Superintendent Steven Watkins reported to Lincoln School Board members.

The figures showed a June 30, 1958 balance of $41,368.01 for the lunchrooms, plus $7,276.26 in income not reported. The June, 1957 balance was $53,375.84.

Especially healthy appetites at Lincoln Northeast raised receipts $3,802.57 above the 1956-57 school term, and Meadow Lane School reported a net drop in receipts last year of $2,887.71.

Present at the Tuesday board meeting were all members except Mrs. Roscoe Hill and Glenn Yaussi.

American Buslines Eye Chance Of Selling Out

By Virgil Falloon

American Buslines Inc., strikebound since July 1, is exploring the possibility of selling out, President William F. Aikman of Lincoln confirmed Tuesday.

Aikman said the recently-reorganized company is negotiating with several other bus carriers for possible sales of buses, real estate and other physical assets.

Sale of the operating franchises is also being discussed, he said.

Aikman said this action was necessary to protect creditors of the company and the investment of new company stockholders.

Unions representing the striking drivers and maintenance men were so informed in a meeting last week.

In 28 States

The firm, which operated in 28 states, was recently turned over to new owners under terms of a court-approved reorganization, developed under federal bankruptcy laws.

The new owners subsequently made a new wage offer to the unions, but it was rejected and no further negotiations have ensued.

Asked if the company negotiations for sale of its property now preclude any labor settlement, Aikman "couldn't say."

Nothing For While

A union spokesman said nothing would be done until American makes application for moving its operating franchise to another system.

At that time, he explained, the union will move to protect the rights of its members as employes of American in such transfer.

Aikman did not disclose the names of other bus lines in the negotiations.

He also declined to discuss the present status of the negotiations or time of possible consummation.

Major stockholders in the reorganized company are Continental Southern Bus Lines and Transportation Properties.

13 Lincolnites Semifinalists

Thirteen seniors from the 4 Lincoln high schools have been announced as semi-finalists in the 1958-59 National Merit Scholarship competition.

The list of semifinalists, by schools:

State Hospital Bids Rejected En Masse

The State Board of Control has rejected all bids received for construction of a one-story administration building at the Lincoln State Hospital and the architect is re-designing the structure "to eliminate some items," Board Member Harold Peterson said Tuesday.

Low bids taken Aug. 28 on the proposed building were "about $60,000 over the $191,090 estimate," Peterson said.

The Board member said this necessitated making revisions in the planned building.

The new administration building is scheduled to be constructed on the site of "Old Main" on the hospital grounds.

Peterson said razing of the old structure has not yet been completed but that workmen are now tearing down the south half of the old structure.

The north wing of "Old Main," scene of a fire last spring, has been razed and the center part of the old building also has been torn down.

Peterson said he could give no estimate on when the project would be ready to be submitted for bids again.

Lincoln Ranks Third Lowest In Traffic Deaths

Chicago (AP)—The National Safety Council said Tuesday Lincoln ranked third lowest in traffic deaths for cities of 100,000 to 200,000 population during the first 8 months of this year.

Hartford, Conn., led with 0.3 deaths per 10,000 registered vehicles. Montgomery, Ala., was second with 0.5 and Lincoln followed with 0.6.

Adlai Says U.S. Should Defend Formosa But Not Quemoy, Matsu

...Urges Nationalist Withdrawal

Los Angeles (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson said the United States should defend Formosa but has no business fighting for Quemoy and Matsu.

He said there should be a cease-fire in the Formosa Straits and Nationalist Chinese troops should withdraw from Quemoy and Matsu.

In an attack on United State's foreign policy in the Far East. Stevenson said this country's stand on Quemoy "is not even helping to contain communism, but actually creating sympathy for Red China and misgivings about our good sense."

He added U.S. policy has brought America to the brink of war with Red China, although he said he believes such a conflict will not take place.

The twice-defeated Democratic candidate for President, in a talk to a Democratic fund-raising dinner for Senate candidate Rep. Clair Engle, said conditions for a sound American position would be met by:

"A cease fire; withdrawal of the Nationalist armed forces from Quemoy and Matsu; joint renunciation by Formosa and Peiping of the further use of force against each other; and the declaration by the United Nations and all concerned that the future of Formosa would be decided by the island's population at a time and under conditions to be determined by the United Nations."

County Lists Two More Rabies Cases

Two cases of rabies have been reported by the Lancaster County Health Dept. bringing to 8 the total number of animal rabies cases this summer in Lancaster County.

The pair, David Smith of 6719 Dudley and Bill Hauserman of 1330 N. 30th, were bitten by a rabid squirrel after they picked the animal up to play with it.

Dr. George Underwood of the County Health Dept. warned youngsters to steer clear of stray dogs and other animals. He said dogs have transmitted the disease to other animals and youngsters should "leave squirrels and other animals alone."

The two cases brought to 24 the total number of animal rabies cases registered with the State Health Dept. this year as to 37 last year at this time. Other cases involved one cat in each of the following counties: Holt, Otoe, Knox, and Douglas.

Nixon Claims Best Years Were Past 6

Los Angeles (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon said that Americans in search of a good living have had under President Eisenhower "the best 6 years in this country's history."

Nixon came back to his state for a television address in support of Republican candidates in California's November elections.

He plugged in his speech for Sen. William F. Knowland, running for governor against Democrat Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, and Gov. Goodwin Knight, running for the U. S. Senate against Democratic Rep. Clair Engle.

Own Records

Nixon asked support for Knowland and Knight on the basis of their own records, and also on their support for Eisenhower administration policies.

The Vice President remarked that a lot of criticism has swirled about the administration foreign policy in the last 6 years, and added:

"All the criticism in the world cannot obscure this solid fact: This administration got the United States out of one war, it has avoided other wars, and it has kept the peace without surrender of principle or territory."

Bomb Aboard

Callan Tells Why No Party Label On His Billboards

Democratic Congressional Candidate Clair Callan Tuesday explained the absence of the party label on his billboard advertisements.

"To be very frank, the purpose of the billboard advertising is to acquaint the people of the First District with my name with the hope they will investigate my qualifications, party affiliation and philosophy of government."

State GOP Chairman Richard Spelts Jr. of Grand Island Monday chided Democrats for leaving the party name off billboards.

"It is true," Callan declared in a statement, "that the Republican nominees indicate party affiliation on their billboards, but I wonder which Republican party. Is it the party of Eisenhower, Nixon, Dulles and Benson, or is the Republican Party of Nebraska a party within itself?"

AF Asks To Get Old Navy Air Station

... For Air Guard Use

Washington (AP) — The Air Force has applied for permission to take over operation of the old Naval Air Station at Lincoln, Neb.

The 97-acre base was declared surplus by the Navy last spring.

A formal request for the transfer was made by the Air Force to the House and Senate Armed Services committees last Friday.

The Air Force said the Base, which has an estimated value of $3,802,769, would continue to be used as an Air National Guard training facility.

Under regulations, such a request for transfer of surplus government property must be before the committees for 10 days.

If there is no objection, the transfer then is automatic. No protest is expected.

The jurisdictional shift has the approval of the assistant secretary of Defense in charge of properties and installations.

The Nebraska Air National Guard is now using the facilities at the Lincoln Naval Base. The Navy aquired the property at an original cost of $26,675.

Probation Given in Check Forgery

William F. Daniels of Lincoln pleaded nolo contendere (no contest) in Lancaster Distract Court Tuesday to a charge of "possession of a forged instrument."

Judge Harry A. Spencer found the 50-year-old man guilty, and placed him on probation for two years. Daniels, who lived at 844 No. 26th at the time of his arrest, was charged with possession of a $125 forged check on May 30, 1954.

After he pleaded guilty, Chief Dep. Co. Atty. Dale Fahrnbruch dismissed a second count of the information which charged Daniels with "uttering a forged instrument" in connection with the same check. Daniels had previously pleaded innocent to both charges.

Trailer Hauling Firm Challenges Permit

An Indiana trailer hauling firm has told the State Supreme Court that a Scottsbluff firm should never have won State Railway Commission authority to haul trailers within Nebraska.

In a brief filed with the high court, Morgan Drive Away, Inc., of Elkhart, Ind., said that when the commission authorized Wallace C. Walker, doing business as the Modern Body Shop of Scottsbluff, to haul trailers, it disregarded "undisputed evidence as to existing adequate and satisfactory service."

Bulk Of Corn Expected To Avoid Frost Damage

. . . Most Of Crop Now In Dent Stage

Forty-two per cent of Nebraska's bumper corn crop has matured but farmers are waiting for moisture content to diminish before swinging into the harvest, government observers reported Tuesday.

A few fields have been opened in a number of counties and the bulk of corn acreage is expected to escape damage from frost, according to the weekly report of the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics.

Some late planted corn, or corn held back by floods or hail, will need a few more weeks to mature, the agency said.

Nearly all corn has reached the dent stage.

Ideal drying weather last week helped mature sorghum but late planted fields are still vulnerable in some sections.

Nearly three-fourths of the winter wheat acreage has been planted, meanwhile. Fields were too wet to work in southeast Nebraska last week but seeding is virtually completed in western districts.

In central and east central Nebraska, dry top soil has slowed the planting.

Most wheat counties report adequate subsoil moisture. Principal exceptions are in central Nebraska.

Other observations:

Rye and legume seeding is about 90% completed. Much of the state, except the southeast, needs rain to replenish surface soil moisture supplies and give wheat and other fall seedings a good start.

The quality of feeder cattle is described as very good.

Demand for sows, gilts and boars emphasizes the expanding interest in hog production.

For the 12 months ending Aug. 31 precipitation in Nebraska has topped the normal in nearly all sections. Exceptions were largely in the extreme northwest.

Rainfall throughout Nebraska during the past week included:

	East
Lincoln .06		Omaha .04
	Central
Valentine .05

Precipitation since the April 1 growing season by sections, compared with normal:

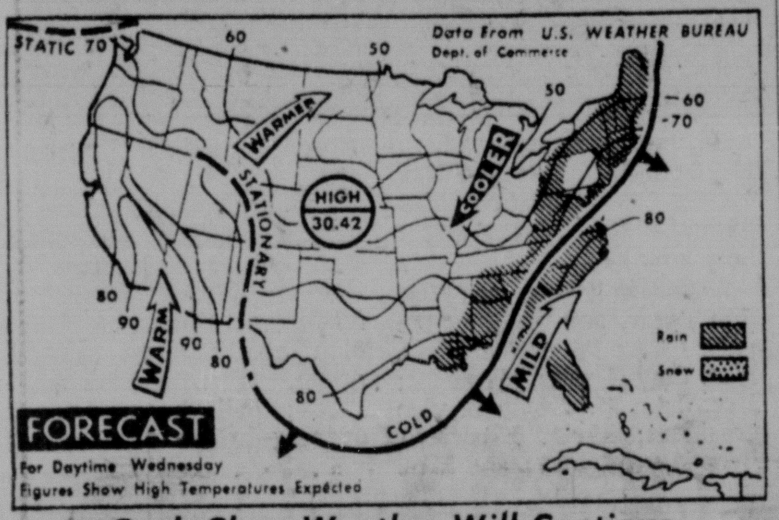
Northwest—14.13 inches; normal 12.53.
North Central—16.18; 15.00.
Northeast—17.62; 17.99.
Central—18.13; 16.36.
East Central—23.26; 19.06.
Southwest—16.74; 14.37.
South Central—19.08; 16.88.
Southeast—27.87; 20.99.

Ex-Nebraskan Accidentally Shot By Wife

Ellsworth, Kan. (AP) — Robert Eugene Williams, 20, Kanopolis, Kan., formerly of Scottsbluff, Neb., died in a hospital here of a gunshot wound accidentally inflicted by his wife, Sheriff Charles Zavesky said.

The sheriff said the young couple was hunting doves southeast of here when the wife, Joanne, either stepped in a hole or tripped over their dog, causing a .16 gauge shotgun to fire. Williams was hit in the back.

The couple moved here from Scottsbluff in January. Williams worked for a trucking firm that distributes salt from mines in the area.



Cool, Clear Weather Will Continue

East coast states, except central and southern Pennsylvania and east Gulf coast region, can expect showers Wednesday with rain forecast for middle Atlantic states. It will be clear to partly cloudy in most of the remainder of the nation with cool weather in all but south Atlantic states in the eastern half of the country. It will be warmer in the northern Plains, Arizona and New Mexico. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Sowers On 2-Day Tour In Northeast

Lincoln Star Special

Norfolk, Neb. — Ideal fall weather accompanied the Lincoln Sowers, goodwill group of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday on the first day of their two-day trip into northeastern Nebraska.

The Lincolnites were Tuesday night dinner guests of the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce in the ballroom of the Hotel Madison.

Lt. E. P. Schroeder of the Nebraska State Highway Patrol was the main speaker at the dinner.

The Sowers first stop of the day was at Fullerton where they were presented with a key to the city by Fullerton's Mayor Wayne Nicholls. Also greeting the Lincolnites was the Fullerton High School band, directed by Richard Baker, formerly of Lincoln.

Approximately 400 persons turned out to greet the Sowers upon their arrival at Cedar Rapids.

At Greeley, the Sowers viewed that community's new postoffice just recently put into use. They were officially welcomed to the city by Raymond Milnar, who serves as both Greeley school superintendent and president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Stopping at Spalding for lunch, the Sowers were greeted by some 125 persons. Presiding at the luncheon was John N. Fox, president of the Spalding Chamber.

Newman Grove's High School band, directed by Jack Davis, welcomed the Sowers to that community along with approximately 500 other residents. From there the Sowers traveled to Lindsay.

A special committee from the Humphrey Commercial Club—Gene Kessler, Dick Olmer, Dr. S. R. Chaulk and W. E. Gehr—greeted the Lincolnites upon arrival there.

At Madison the high school band, directed by Kenneth Gansebom, welcomed the Sowers. Also on hand were Mayor Victor Freudenburg; Chamber President R. A. Lafleur; Supt. of Schools Corwin Enevoldsen and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garrison, operators of the Madison Star Mail.

Chadron Extends Hearty Welcome To Air Service

Chadron, Neb. (AP) — Despite a brisk wind and 40 degree temperatures a good crowd was on hand at the Chadron Municipal Airport Tuesday to welcome the first scheduled flight of Frontier Airlines.

The Omaha-To-Casper plane touched down on schedule at 9 a.m. (MST) and immediately started flying guests on sightseeing tours over the city.

Distinguished visitors included Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb) and Sen Francis Case (R-S.D.).

The day's program included a luncheon for guests at noon and official welcoming ceremonies at the airport in the afternoon. The afternoon program included the appearance of Air Fair Queen Leona Schultz of Batesland, S. D., a freshman at Chadron college and presentation of the prize-winning essayist Bonnie Marshall, freshman at Chadron High School. Bonnie won two round trip tickets to Lincoln via Frontier for her essay on what Frontier Airlines means to the city.

One of the busiest men in Chadron was postmaster Cy McDowell, who has had to handle more than 300 pieces of special mail for stamp collectors who wanted "first day covers" from the inaugural flight. The covers will not carry a special cachet, but will be backstamped to indicate the "first."

Plans To Spur Big Blue River Watershed Project Discussed

Crete, Neb. (AP) — Preliminary plans to spur flood control and water conservation in the 4,500 square mile Big Blue River watershed were sketched at a meeting here.

Allington

The meeting brought together the Big Blue Watershed Planning Board and the Big Blue Watershed Assn.

Directors favored a double-barreled approach involving:

1. A survey of needs and possible methods of meeting them over the entire watershed.
2. Promotion of intensive land treatment and watershed protection work in local areas.

To launch the basin-wide survey, the planning board voted to meet late in October with a representative of the State Soil and Water Conservation Committee and area conservationists of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

Frank Allington, Blue Springs farmer, was elected president of the Watershed Assn. to succeed Robert James of York. Levi Yost of Milford was named vice president and Jack Quackenbush of Beatrice, secretary-treasurer.

A Happy World Series To You, Too

—happy October, and happy World Series to everyone this bright, first-of-October morning—. Oddly enough our news hasn't too much to do with the World Series, but it does involve October.

For instance, Saturday evening, Oct. 11, will be an International Holiday for the members of the 100 Club—The committee in charge of the club's Saturday evening party have chosen the holiday theme for its first dinner dance of the current season.

The affair is to be held in the ballroom at Hotel Cornhusker and planning the details is a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cunningham, chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. George Unthank, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harnsberger, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knudsen, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Patten.

* * *

—but it is this week end—Friday evening, Oct. 3, that the Mr. and Mrs. Dancing Club will be tripping the light fantastic at Hotel Lincoln—And we use the word "tripping" advisedly. It seems that this is to be a "Hoop Hop" party, and there are to be prizes awarded to those who have been the most apt pupils of their small-fry in the Hula hoop project.

Introduced at the dinner dance will be six new member couples including Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Falloon, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gassaway, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Huffman, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Otto and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Westerdahl.

In charge of the Hoop Hop plans is a committee headed by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cleveland who are being assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Robin Loerch, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ekwall, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Landgren and Mr. and Mrs. William Jones.

Guest couples at the party will be Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kreuscher.

* * *

—we can't completely ignore the World Series as far as the news is concerned—especially when Lt. and Mrs. William Giles left yesterday for Milwaukee and the first game of the series—Lt. Giles has a definite interest in baseball—His father, you see, is Warren Giles, president of the National League.

* * *

—understand that Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson (Jean Aitken) will be coming from Newton, Ia., for the Oct. 4 game and will be bringing guests—Mr. and Mrs. Don Webb, also of Newton.

Following Saturday's game Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will entertain a small group of guests at dinner at the home of Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Aitken, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Webb.

* * *

—just this moment heard that Mr. and Mrs. Burkett Van Kirk of Washington D.C., formerly of Lincoln, will be flying in for the Nebraska-Kansas State game on Oct. 11. Mr. and Mrs. Van Kirk, who will be the house guests of Mr. Van Kirk's grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Burkett, also plan to attend the Gay Nighters dinner dance planned for Saturday evening, Oct. 11.

Election

The newly organized Happy Day Home Extension Sept. 25, at the home of Mrs. Richard Kreiner for a dessert luncheon and election of Club met on Thursday, officers.

Officers include Mrs. Kreiner, president; Mrs. Frank Nelson, vice president; Mrs. Otto Eickmeyer, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Harold Anderson, health; Mrs. Lee Bingham, reading; Mrs. Robert Nagel, civl defense; and Mrs. Henry Hergenrader, music.

The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold Anderson on Wednesday, Oct. 15.

Dear Abby . . .

Really For The Birds!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who has a parakeet that really talks, but this is the only parakeet I have ever been able to understand. I asked her how she trained the bird to talk and she said in the first place make sure you have a male bird because female birds do not make a sound. Then she said to put the bird in a teapot and whisper down the spout whatever it is you want the bird to learn. She told me this with a straight face. What I want to know is—was she kidding me?

BOBBI

DEAR BOBBI: I have never heard of teaching a parakeet to talk in this manner and unless somebody has been kidding ME, the female of any species can outtalk the male.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I have been corresponding with a young lady from across the ocean for two years. I am 30 and she is 27. We have never met in person but I think I have fallen in love with her. We have exchanged so many letters and pictures that I feel that I know her very well. She wants me to send her the money for a ticket to come here. My friends say I am foolish because a gift of this kind is almost a promise of marriage Is it possible to fall in love with words and pictures and what should I do about her insistence that I send her the money?

HJALMER

DEAR HJALMER: It is possible to fall in love with words and pictures, but not very practical. For the same amount of money and no obligations you can go over there and meet this girl. I recommend it.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: How do you break a child of playing with and biting extension cords? I would appreciate anything anyone knows about it. My 14-month-old child is continually playing with extension cords and today he bit into one and got a mild shock. I have spanked him and fussed at him until I want to tear my hair out but to no avail. Can anyone help me?

MYRT

DEAR MYRT: A child of 14 months shouldn't be allowed to crawl around where he can get his hands on extension cords. He is teething . . . give him a teething ring and keep him off the floor unless he is in a playpen. You are lucky he didn't electrocute himself.

☆ ☆ ☆

CONFIDENTIAL TO TOMMY: There is no such thing as "FREE LOVE". . . Somebody always has to pay for it. It's usually the woman.

If you have a problem, write to Abigail Van Buren in care of this paper. She will be glad to answer your letter. For a personal reply, please enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

NU Faculty Group Entertains

Honoring the wives of new faculty members at the University of Nebraska, the Faculty Wives Newcomers Club entertained at their annual reception Tuesday evening at the home of the group's honorary president, Mrs. Clifford Hardin.

Pictured (from the left) in the foreground are Mrs. Donald Sander and Mrs. Charles Bold, new members; and in the background we find Mrs. Vavon Somption and Mrs. James Plihal, who is also a new member.

Reception hostess was Mrs. Jim Drew, and greeting the guests were the club officers, Mrs. Clay Gerken, president; Mrs. John M. Cronland, vice president; Mrs. Ellsworth Benson, secretary; and Mrs. Gerald Weekman, treasurer.

The organization meets monthly during the school year and also sponsors a variety of interest groups for its members including a foreign and regional cooking group, a book exchange group; both beginning and evening bridge groups, and a hobby and handcraft group.

BY PAT MELBY

A blazing bonfire, accompanied by cheers and a few short pep talks Friday before the game, proved that the student body of Pius X has really gone all out in "spirit" this year. For the first time in the history of Pius X, as the Thunderbolts racked up their first big victory on the home field this season over Omaha Cathedral, the entire Pep Club, screaming and cheering, ran onto the field to congratulate the team. The junior class sponsored its first dance after the game in our recreation room, which was gaily decorated with streamers and footballs. The successful Victory Celebration consisted of everything from slow dances to "hula-hoops"!

Another event which took place on Friday, was the official inauguration of our new Student Council president, Gary Tiehen; the installation of Student Council and class officers, and representatives from each of the homerooms. The assembly opened with the presentation of the American Flag and the "Pledge of Allegiance". After the officers had taken the oath of office, Father B. E. Kalin, the new Superintendent of Schools, gave a short talk, and the program was ended with the hymn, "An Army of Youth."

A new experience for Pius X this year is having our own exchange student. Pretty Hildagarde Konczol of Germany is staying with Elizabeth Dodge and her family of Holy Family Parish. We enjoy having Hildagrade with us, and we hope this will be a successful and enjoyable year for her.

The "Thunderer", our 1959 yearbook, is now in full swing with the new staff starting work on it this week. The staff advises that there will be many changes made in the annual to promote a real interest in all school affairs, starting this year and in the years to come. Good luck to the staff!

If the first few weeks of school set the pace for the 1958 school year, we can be sure that this is going to be the best. The cheery faces of the sophomores, whose class is twice the size that it was two years ago, add to the new spirit and excitement of all our activities. We extend a hearty "Welcome" to all!

Hold Meeting

Active and alumnae members of Xi chapter, Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary, met on Tuesday evening, at University High School for their fall get-acquainted party.

Honor Officers Wives' Golfers

Honored Tuesday afternoon at luncheon at the Inter-Com Club were the top golfers of the Lincoln Air Force Base Officers Wives Club.

SERVICE CIRCLES

BY SYBIL WEBBER

Fall, it seems, is traditionally the time when every philanthropic organization starts dusting off the files and getting things in readiness for whopping benefits—and the ladies of Lincoln Air Force Base are no exception.

The Wives Clubs, having made their donations to Air Force Aid, are alerting the treasury for the next one—the Community Chest. And, the service wives, like their civilian counterparts, have a few projects of their own.

The one we're thinking about, in particular, is known as "Operation Santa Claus"—and the ladies (bless us) are really in there pitching, with base-wide bake sales and bazaars, all designed to give Santa's fund a monetary assist . . . Of course, sandwiched in with all this activity, are vacations and transfers and parties! For example, learned that Lt. Col. and Mrs. R. D. Smith returned a few days ago from a busy two weeks' leave. They spent a couple of days fishing at the H-Lazy-S Ranch (or some such name) in Wyoming. Then they drove to Yakima, Washington for a visit with Colonel Smith's parents, and to The Dalles, Oregon, for a family reunion with Doris' folks.

. . . met a charming newcomer the other morning and learned that they had just recently been transferred here from Norton AFB, Calif., and are residents of Air Base Heights now. We're speaking of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Al Gaddes, of course, and the two younger members of the family, Nancy and Larry.

. . . and here's a goody! The Snyders (Lt. Col. and Mrs. George Snyder, that is) are going to Cambodia, of all places! They will occupy a four-bedroom air conditioned apartment (of course they have four children, but even so, who ever hears of four-bedroom apartments anymore?) Sounds great, doesn't it . . . we just won't elaborate on the part about no schools, so Helen will teach the young ones, herself . . . and all the water must be boiled before drinking . . . and, well—instead we'll just tell you about a farewell coffee Rosse Sweezy had for her a few days ago. Fifteen guests attended and the affair was held at Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Sweezy's quarters on North Kingsley.

. . . a big social event among the small fry recently was the Sept. 20 birthday party for young William Kutscher, son of Major and Mrs. Leroy Kutscher. The affair marked the fourth birthday of the guest-of-honor and guests called at the family quarters on North Kinsley for an afternoon of games and refreshments. Attending were Robin Sweezy, Sue and Johnny Gaines, Steven and Cynthia Flentche, Lynn Johnson, Elizabeth Kutscher, Leo Wierzbowski and "Hap" Pennington.

. . . Fashion shows are still in the picture . . . official receptions are much in the limelight, too — and, plans are already underway for an all-base Christmas party for the Air Force young-'uns!

. . . Capt. and Mrs. Gordon Mack entertained informally Sept. 13, with a pizza party at their quarters on Doolittle. Their guest list numbered around fourteen.

M.Sgt. and Mrs. H. F. Connors and their two daughters will be heading for an overseas assignment to North Africa. And Sergeant Lucas and his family will soon be bound for Germany.

Meetings Scheduled

The Lincoln Chapter of the International Association of Career Women will meet for a 6:30 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening at the Capital Hotel.

Mrs. Florence Gibbons will preside at the meeting during which reports will be given on the organization's international convention held at Shreveport, La., Sept. 19 and 20.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Elsie Rokahr who will speak on her trip to Turkey.

Board members of St. Leger Cowley Chapter, DAR, will meet Friday evening following a 5:30 o'clock tray supper at the YWCA.

Mrs. H. M. Cox, regent, will preside and the group will discuss final plans for the chapter's pilgrimage on Saturday to Pawnee City, where the members will be the luncheon guests of Mrs. J. R. Bennett, former regent of the chapter.

The trip will be made by chartered bus and the group will visit the home of Nebraska's first governor, David Butler, and will stop at the Freeman Homestead near Beatrice en route to Lincoln.

In observation of National Business Women's Week, Oct. 5 to 12, the members of the Lincoln Business and Professional Women's Club will entertain at tea Sunday afternoon in the club rooms at 130 So. 11th.

Guests invited to the 3 o'clock to 5 o'clock affair are the members of the Axis B, PW Club, the Metropolitan B, PW Club and the Havelock B, PW Club.

Opening their fall season of activities on Wednesday, Oct. 8, will be the members of the University of Nebraska Faculty Women's Club who will entertain at their annual autumn tea at the home of Mrs. Clifford Hardin.

Members of the board will be hostesses for the 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock affair.

Board members include Mrs. Bill Orwig, president; Miss Kathryn Renfro, first vice president; Mrs. W. C. Meierhenry, second vice president; Mrs. Noel Smith, third vice president; Mrs. Jack McBride, secretary; Mrs. Warren Sahs, treasurer; Mrs. F. Wayne House, program chairman; Mrs. John Kuiken, interest groups chairman; and Mrs. Raymond Dein, scholarships chairman.

The alumnae of Kappa Alpha Theta will meet for a 1 o'clock luncheon on Wednesday, Oct. 8, at the home of Mrs. Martin Aitken on the Old Cheney Rd.

Mrs. Herbert Walt will be chairman of the hostess committee assisted by Mrs. Richard Kosman, Mrs. John Boman, Mrs. R. E. Campbell, Mrs. Jack Cole, Mrs. H. Channing Collins, Mrs. James Crabill, Miss Cornelia Crittenden, Mrs. Robert Danielson, Mrs. Thomas Davies and Mrs. J. Melvin Boykin.

There's Always News In Suburbia

Lincoln Star Soc Wed A.M...

Country Club Terrace and Indian Village suburbs front and center this morning and the news, as usual, covers a variety of interesting subjects.

COUNTRY CLUB TERRACE

It's our pleasure this morning to introduce a new member of the bassinet brigade, namely, Claude Earl Berreckman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Berreckman. The young man was born at Lincoln General Hospital on Tuesday, Sept. 16.

Claude's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ellis of North Platte, and Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Jeffrey of Lexington are the maternal grandparents.

Incidentally, Mrs. Jeffrey was a guest of her son-in-law and daughter last week, and Mrs. Ellis is presently visiting at the Berreckman home.

Also the proud parents of a new son are Mr. and Mrs. David Hubbell. Neal Cummings Hubbell put in his premiere appearance at Lincoln General Hospital on Tuesday, Sept. 2.

Neal has a sister, Kimberly Ann, and his grandparents are Mrs. George Lee and Arthur Hubbell, both of St. Paul, Minn.

Earlier this month, Mrs. Lee spent two weeks in Country Club Terrace getting acquainted with her new grandson.

Mention of the younger set reminds us that it was Sunday night, Sept. 21, that Nancy Feld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin J. Feld, celebrated her 3rd birthday. Guests at the ice-cream-and-cake party included her two sisters, Cindy and Marily; Jeanine Chandler, Brad Krasne, Robin, Melissa, and Douglas Markel; Marcia and Jordie Kiminsky, and Larry Mozer.

Off to Omaha on Sunday, Sept. 21, were Mr. and Mrs. Vern Watkins and their children, Ronnie, Deborah and Doug. They were guests of Mr. Watkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Watkins.

INDIAN VILLAGE

Understand that Mr. and Mrs. Dean B. Nelson and their daughter, Shari, entertained at a family gathering at their home on Saturday, Sept. 20. Included among the guests were Mrs. Nelson's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Denney and their son, Arthur, of Omaha, Mr. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Nelson and daughter, Wanda, of Aurora, and Miss Karen Nelson of Lincoln.

Also an event of Saturday was a 10:30 o'clock coffee and pink and blue shower for which Mrs. Bill Marting was hostess. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Neal E. Tyner, and the 10 guests were invited to the Marting home for the morning.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures gives you. Ford, Spahn Both Admit 'Butterflies'

...Tension Builds Up On World Series Mound Choices; Cool Weather Predicted For Today's Opener

By Oscar Fraley

Milwaukee (UPI)—Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves and Whitey Ford of the New York Yankees—the southpaws set to square off in the opening game of the World Series—both admitted Tuesday night on the eve of the classic that they had "butterflies."

Neither the lanky Spahn nor Ford, the "Iceman" of the Yankees, voiced any concern over the 50-degree temperature predicted when they start the best-of-seven-game battle before a sellout crowd at 1 p.m. CST today but both admitted to the growing feeling of pressure.

"We all get a few butterflies and, while this is my 10th World Series game, I'll be on edge until the game gets under way," said Ford, noted for his imperturbability and calmness.

"We're all a little numb until this thing gets going," Spahn added as both teams took a final drill at Milwaukee County Stadium under chill, gray skies.

Spahn, the Braves' 22-game winner who lost last year's opener to Ford before Milwaukee bounced back to win the championship of the baseball world in 7 games, said that he anticipated no difficulty in the cool weather.

"This is typical Milwaukee weather in the early season or late in the year," explained the 37-year-old lefthander who is the only southpaw in baseball history to post 9 20-game seasons.

Ford, who will try to put the Yankees, favored at 13 to 10 in the classic, off winning again, said that he prefers cool weather but looked wistfully at the 15 to 25 mile per hour winds blowing toward the outfield—the same winds as predicted for the opening game—and sighed:

"I wish that wind was blowing toward the plate—because right now this is a hitters' ball park."

Casey Stengel, the Yankee manager whose teams now have won 9 pennants in 10 years and will be shooting for his 7th World Series championship in that period, visualized the opener—a pick 'em affair—as a pitchers' battle.

"You'll see some real good pitching out there," he analyzed as his Yankees took their workout. "That Spahn has to be some man and there isn't anything wrong with my guy."

Neither Stengel nor Fred Haney, the Braves' manager, announced a starting lineup. But Stengel said that he would start the left-handed hitting Yogi Berra behind the plate instead of the right-handed hitting Elston Howard, who has been hitting better.

Berra catches Ford all the time," Stengel explained.

This kept alive Berra's skein of starting in a total of 10 series and will boost his record of having caught more Series contests than any catcher in baseball history.

Hank Bauer, who will be seeking to extend his record to 15 consecutive World Series games in which he has hit safely, will lead off for the Yankees and play right field. Following him will be Gil McDougald at second base; Mickey Mantle in centerfield; Howard in left field and batting cleanup; Berra; Moose Skowron at first base; Andy Carey at third; Tony Kubek at shortstop and Ford.

The only Yankee player in the doubtful category was pitcher Bobby Shantz, who sprained a finger on his pitching hand in Sunday's season finale and who is wearing a metal splint on the finger.

Haney was expected to make a surprise move and start Felix Mantilla, his all-around utility man, in center field in place of the injured Bill Bruton.

The Braves guess privately that the Milwaukee lineup would be led off by Red Schoendienst at second base; Johnny Logan at short; Eddie Mathews, third base; Hank Aaron, right field; Joe Adcock, first base; Wes Covington, left field; Del Crandall, catching; Mantilla, and Spahn.

The only probable change in this hitting order was conjecture over whether Haney might move Mantilla up to bat second and drop Logan to 8th.

Bruton, nursing a tender knee, insisted that he would be physically ready to play. First baseman Frank Torre, another on the injury list, said that a sore right hand was "100 per cent OK when taped," and Covington reported that his bad leg "is okay as long as I don't try to change direction too quickly."

Today's batteries: For the Yankees, catcher Yogi Berra (left) and pitcher Whitie Ford (inset); for Milwaukee, catcher Del Crandell and pitcher Warren Spahn (inset).

Denies Calling Casey 'Clown'

Milwaukee (AP) — Warren Spahn, Milwaukee's brilliant pitcher, Tuesday denied that he had ever referred to Manager Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees as "a clown."

The 37-year-old southpaw sought out Stengel during the morning World Series workout and personally apologized.

"I want you to know," Spahn said to Stengel, who managed Warren when he was with the Boston Braves in 1942, "that I did not call you a clown. The fellow who wrote that misinterpreted my remarks."

Stengel accepted the apology and told Spahn he regarded him as one of the finest gentlemen in baseball as well as one of the greatest pitchers he had ever seen.

Spahn, in a clubhouse interview Monday was quoted as saying that Stengel once told him he'd never be a good pitcher. Asked what kind of a manager Casey was with the Braves 16 years ago, Spahn was quoted as saying: "He was nothing but a clown."

In denying having called Stengel a clown, Warren said: "I was misunderstood. What I actually said was that Casey in those days was always clowning around. I would never call that man a clown. Baseball has been good to me and I've met some wonderful people in it, including Stengel. I feel bad about it."

Duck Hunting Starts Today

Duck hunting season got underway at 5:53 this morning in the Lincoln area, and will close today at sunset, 6:10 p.m.

Hunting opens today for duck, geese and grouse.

Hunting for duck and geese got underway in all areas of the state, with grouse season opening in the Sandhills area. The grouse season ends Oct. 12.

Duck can be taken until Dec. 29, geese until Nov. 29, except for blue and snow geese, which may be taken until Dec. 14.

Bag limit on ducks is 4, while 8 in possession is the limit.

Shooting Hours

Sunset Wednesday—6:10 p.m.

Sunrise Thursday—6:24 a.m.

Sunset Thursday — 6:08 p.m.

Legal shooting hours—one-half hour before sunrise to sunset for all game regulated by the Nebraska Game Commission.

Sunrise and sunset hours are given for Lincoln and any point in Nebraska due north or due south of Lincoln. Since sun time changes approximately one minute for each 13 miles in Nebraska, add one minute to the times above for each 13 miles west of Lincoln, for each 13 miles east of Lincoln subtract one minute.

Good, Bad Fortune For Ashburns

Tilden (AP)—Fortune was both good and bad to the Richie Ashburn family Sunday.

Shortly after Richie, 31-year-old Philadelphia Phillies outfielder, won the National League batting title for the second time, his family back in Tilden was involved in a minor accident.

Safety patrolman Daryl Dittinger of Norfolk said cars driven by Mrs. Ashburn and Tom Minarik, 43, of Verdel, Neb., collided at the edge of Tilden Sunday evening. The two drivers were unhurt, but 3 small children in the Ashburn car suffered cuts and bruises. They were treated by a physician and released. The 3 were Genie and Jan, preschool aged children of the Ashburns and a friend, Mary Harvell of Tilden. Most seriously hurt was Genie, who lost two teeth in the accident.

Ashburn was en route home at the time and did not learn of the accident until his arrival.

Don Follis, Michigan State junior end from Grosse Pointe, Mich., holds the state high school record for consecutive extra points in one game. He kicked 8 in a row against Port Huron in 1954.

Stratton Quail Seem Content

Stratton, Neb. (AP) — Nebraska's quail season doesn't open until Oct. 25 and the birds apparently know it.

Quail have even been spotted on main street in this southwestern Nebraska town.

While having coffee in a local cafe recently, Bob Shick, the State Game Commission's land supervisor at Alliance, looked out and saw a covey of 19 quail crossing a vacant lot.

"The birds walked noncalantly across main street, 75 yards from busy Highway 34, and disappeared," Shick said.

"They looked well fed and contented.

KUHLMANN . . . hobbled.

5 Mizzou Starters On Injured Roster

Columbia, Mo. (AP) — Tackle Owen Worstell of the University of Missouri was listed Tuesday by Coach Dan Devine as a doubtful starter in Saturday night's game against Texas A&M at College Station, Tex.

The first stringer, who suffered a gash in his leg in dummy scrimmage Monday, was on crutches Tuesday.

Four other first string players are on the casualty list, including All-Big Eight fullback Hank Kuhlmann.

Others are Norris Stevenson, halfback, and Don Chadwick and Charlie Rash, guards. None will do any contact work for the rest of the week, Devine said.

KS Stresses Defense

Manhattan, Kas. (AP)—Kansas State gridders worked at defense, especially against end plays, Tuesday for Saturday's game here with Utah State.

"We'll see the fastest pair of halfbacks Saturday that we will have to face this season," Coach Bus Mertes said. He referred to Utah State's Overton Curtis and Buddy Allen.

Buffs Lose Another

Boulder, Colo. (AP) — Colorado's football team lost a second player to injuries Tuesday in preparation for its Big Eight clash Saturday at Kansas.

Sophomore Jim Flowers, who suffered a shoulder bruise against Kansas State last week, was shelved for the Jayhawk game.

Coach Dal Ward moved reserve fullback Leroy Clark to the second string left halfback position, replacing Flowers. Clark will spell starter Howard Cook in that position Saturday.

KU Sophs Listed

Lawrence, Kan. (AP)—Twelve sophomores were in the first two units of the Kansas football squad in Tuesday's workout. Five were on the first team and 7 on the second.

Injuries have reduced the ranks of experienced players until there were only 4 seniors and 6 juniors in the top 22.

Coach Jack Mitchell said the possible loss of tackle John Peppercorn and left halfback Duane Morris will be especially costly against Colorado this week.

Chalk Talk

Norman, Okla. (AP) — Oklahoma, the nation's No. 1 football team, Tuesday prepared for this week's intersectional game here against Oregon with work both at the blackboard and on the practice field.

Coach Bud Wilkinson gave a chalk talk on Oregon's offense, then the squad spent two hours practicing defense in cold, damp weather.

Wilkinson announced that left guard Jerry Thompson of Ada would play against the Ducks here Saturday. Thompson was on the first unit when a fractured thumb handicapped him and kept him from the opener with West Virginia.

Cowboys Shifted

Stillwater, Okla. (AP) — Coach Cliff Speegle Tuesday realigned players on his top two Oklahoma State teams, but said the move may not be permanent.

PROBABLE STARTERS IN TODAY'S GAME

Milwaukee (AP)—The probable starting lineups for today's opening World Series game between the Milwaukee Braves and New York Yankees at County Stadium. (Batting averages and pitching records in parentheses):

NICHOLS . . . top notch.

POINT BLANK

By Don Bryant

Sports Editor, The Star

Today Dick Wagner moves from Sherman Field to Pershing Auditorium.

This corner wishes him luck in his new endeavor and congratulates him on his decision to leave minor league baseball.

Judging from the weekend meeting of the Western League directors at Colorado Springs, he's a man of foresight and wisdom. The future of minor league baseball—and the Western—is bleak indeed.

Dick had a couple of chances to improve himself in higher classifications, but he chose to remain in Lincoln and embark on a new career.

I came away from Colorado Springs feeling very strongly that the Western League is just kidding itself. Plans to split the league, goofy playoffs and All-Star games are just straw-graspings. Nobody seemed interested in talking about where the money was coming from, and the lack of working agreements apparently bothered nary a soul to the point of becoming realists.

So we get an announcement that the league will operate intact next summer. Maybe so, but don't hold your breath. Whenever you have to rely on gimmics to keep a league together, you're in trouble. And the Western is in trouble.

Wagner's departure from the Chiefs' post, puts the Lincoln club over the barrel, but no one blames him for abandoning the sinking ship.

The Chiefs need a general manager with a solid baseball background to guide them through the difficult days ahead. But they can't hire one because there's no way to guarantee him a job next summer. That's how unsettled the Western League is.

And, without a GM, Lincoln will have a tough time navigating this fall when the important decisions have to be made. Also, if by chance the league should stagger on next spring, it will be too late to nab a top-flight general manager.

At any rate, backslaps for Wagner's work at Sherman Field, and best wishes for even better things at Pershing MA.

Did you notice that Oklahoma is once again listed as the No. 1 team in the nation? It doesn't surprise anyone in these parts, but West Virginians are probably pinching themselves.

Although thrashed 47-14 by the Sooners last week, the Mountaineers look with scorn upon the Big Red. Appar-

COP's Bass Sets Football Rushing Pace

New York (AP) — If Richard Lee Bass, College of Pacific's shifty halfback, keeps on running the way he has in his first two games, they'll have to re-write college football records.

The first release of the season from the NCAA Service Bureau for major colleges shows Bass in two games has carried the ball 427 yards in 41 rushes. No player ever opened the season at such a clip, the NCAA observed.

In his opening game Bass romped 215 yards as COP defeated California 24-20, and last Saturday he rushed 212 yards as his team downed Arizona State 34-16.

Bass has completed his one pass attempt for 52 yards, but his ground gains put him at the top of the total offense list with 479 yards.

Gail Cogdill, Washington State end, caught 7 passes against Northwestern Saturday for an all time single game record of 252 yards.

The former two-game record for rushing was 399 by Virginia's Johnny Papit in 1949. For pass receiving, the former mark was 306 yards by Joe McClaran of Drake in 1952.

The leader in pass receiving based on the number caught is Calvin Bird of Kentucky, with 13. Reece Whitley, Virginia co-captain, is leading in passing with 25 completions in 52 tosses for 343 yards. The Virginia quarterback also has hushed 80 yards and is second in total offense with 423 yards.

Bird also is the leading scorer with 32 points, and Cogdill is second with 26.

Charles Milstead of Texas A. & M. lead the kickers with an average of 53.8 yards for 5 punts.

Cable, Swain To Play For 'Stars

New York (AP) — Two more players were added Tuesday to the roster of the College All Stars who will meet the New York Knickerbockers Oct. 18 in a milk fund basketball at Madison Square Garden.

Barney Cable of Bradley and Ben Swain of Texas Southern join Elgin Baylor of Seattle, Guy Rodgers of Temple, Mike Farmer of San Francisco, Connie Dierking of Cincinnati and Jim Cunningham of Fordham on the squad.

Iowa State Dandy Top NU Obstacle

By Don Bryant

Nebraska will be facing one of the top backs in the nation Saturday when Iowa State opens the Huskers' 1958 conference schedule at Memorial Stadium.

He's Dwight Nichols, Cyclone tailback who is an adept runner and, in the words of NU Coach Bill Jennings, "one of the best passers in the country."

These aren't just idle words, by the way.

Nichols currently is ranked No. 5 nationally in total offense (he's collected 298 yards running and passing) and No. 6 nationally in rushing (he has gained 177 yards.)

Incidentally, Nichols' rushing total is just 21 yards shy of Nebraska's team total and his total offense mark is 25 yards more than the Husker team total.

Harden

The Cyclone dandy, who was instrumental in beating the Cornhuskers 13-0 at Ames last year, is the top ball carrier in the Big 8 and he is 4th in passing with 6 of 8 completions for 121 yards.

Another Cyclone, fullback Bob Harden, is the leading scorer in the conference with 24 points.

Confronted with these facts, Jennings said Tuesday:

"This will certainly be one of our real tough games and I look for it to be wide open."

Bill declined to speculate when asked how many points he figured Nebraska would have to score if the Huskers were to win, but he said:

"Don't forget they (Iowa State) haven't been scored on at all this year, so we'll have to do something that hasn't been done yet if we are to win."

Tuesday's work was devoted largely to pass defense and brushing up on defense to be used against the Cyclones.

No. 3 left halfback, Joe Dickson, was playing the part of Nichols on the Scout Club.

Fischer 'Doubtful'

Halfback Pat Fischer was released from Student Health to attend classes Tuesday, but he didn't practice and returned to the campus hospital to spend the night.

Jennings said he considered Fischer, who missed the Purdue game because of the flu after a sensational start against Penn State, a "doubtful participant" against Iowa State.

"He has missed a lot of practice and he's still weak," Bill said. "And we don't want to take a chance on a relapse."

Scalpers' Rates Said $140-180

Milwaukee (AP) — Scalpers' prices for World Series tickets were reported to be between $140 and $180 Tuesday for a single set of grandstand seats worth $28.

The advice came from businessmen under heavy pressure from clients.

Oklahoma Gets First Tough Test Saturday Against Oregon

By Dunkel Sports Research Svc.

Is Oklahoma back on top of the college football rankings to stay?

That question may be answered next Saturday when the Sooners tangle with their most highly rated foe of the season—Oregon.

After finishing no worse than third in the Dunkel Ratings during the last five seasons, Oklahoma is back in the saddle again. The Sooners are first with a 120.0 power index after an opening 47-14 gallop over West Virginia.

But there are no gnats on Oregon either. The same Ducks who pushed Ohio State to the Rose Bowl limit last January 1 rate a sterling 101.9, the Pacific Coast's best. Thus, Oklahoma stands 18 points higher and the Sooners must win by that margin in order to hold their present figure.

Iowa (114.1), a surprise second in the early standings, should get a thorough testing against the all-senior Air Force Academy eleven on Saturday. The Fly boys now rate 28 points lower, at 85.9, and the Hawkeyes may have trouble attaining that margin.

Other current leaders so far have established the following rating pars over opponents of the coming weekend. If they do better than this their ratings will rise, or if worse, vice versa:

No. 3 Army, 27 over Penn State.
No. 4 Auburn, 32 over Chattanooga.
No. 5 Mississippi, 39 over Trinity, Tex.
No. 6 Wisconsin, 39 over Marquette.
No. 7 Mich. State, 7 over Michigan.
No. 8 Purdue, 18 over Rice.
No. 9 LSU, 19 over Hardin-Simmons.
No. 10 Houston U., 26 over Cincinnati.

The Dunkel Ratings show average scoring difference relative to rating of opposition. The higher rating team has won in 75.8 percent of 376 games, not counting ties, covered to date.

In other big games, current dunkel differences are:

EAST—Cornell 20 over Harvard, Dartmouth 23 over Penn, Navy 30 over Boston U. Rutgers 31 over Colgate, Syracuse 5 over Holy Cross, Yale 4 over Brown.

MIDWEST—Nebraska even with Iowa State, Northwestern 23 over Stanford, Ohio State 13 over Washington, Okla. State 14 over Wichita, West Virginia 13 over Indiana,, Pittsburgh 17 over Minnesota.

SOUTH — Baylor 7 over Miami, Fla.; Clemson 10 over Maryland, Georgia 3 over So. Carolina, Ga. Tech 9 over Tulane, Illinois 4 over Duke, Miss. State 4 over Tennessee, Missouri 5 over Texas A&M, Purdue 18 over Rice, SMU even with Notre Dame, Texas 2 over Texas Tech, TCU 31 over Arkansas, Vanderbilt 2 over Alabama, Virginia 10 over N. C. State, Wake Forest 17 over Florida State.

FAR WEST — So. Calif. 12 over N. Carolina (Friday), UCLA 13 over Oregon State, Wash. State 14 over California.

PLAYING IN BAND ROUGH

College Park, Md. (AP) — Maryland's band director attended the weekly football coaching news conference Tuesday and he was right in tune.

Director Hugh Henderson told newsmen that prespects for the band were good. But:

"The cornet player has a broken tooth.

"The cymbal player broke his nose, although that shouldn't affect his playing.

"The tuba player has a collapsed lung.

"The drum major swallowed a whistle. However, that's not so serious I can get another whistle from the track coach."

Rocket Reserves Down Fairbury

Mel Hester connected with Loren Brunke on a 55-yard pass play in the final period to give the Lincoln Northeast reserves a 19-13 victory over Fairbury here Tuesday.

Fairbury held a 13-6 halftime lead, but the Rockets tied it in 3rd period and then won in the last quarter.

Fairbury	7	6	0	0	13
Northeast	0	6	7	6	19

Northeast TDs: Curt Kiner (40, run); Bill Snider (1, sneak); Loren Brunke (55, pass from Mel Hester). PAT: Kiner.

Lincoln Dogs Score In Outstate Meets

Mrs. Merle Wilhelm's Chihauhua finished its championship and Mrs. Dorothy Myers had two winners to lead Cornhusker Kennel Club members in American Kennel Club shows at Wichita, Kan. and Oscaloosa, Ia.

At Wichita—Mr. and Mrs. John Broughton, Shetland sheep dog, best of breed; Mrs. Dorothy Myers, Pomeranian, winner's bitch; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brooks, German Shepard, won first leg on obediance title.

At Oscaloosa—Mrs. Merle Wilhelm, Chihauhua, best of breed to finish championship; Mrs. Dorothy Myers, Pomeranian, best of breed.

Round Table Is Done This Year

New York (AP) — Travis Kerr's Round Table, still more than $25,000 shy of Nashua's world record earnings, will race no more this season.

"This horse can use a rest," said trainer Bill Molter Tuesday night. "He has started 19 times this year and that's enough."

Molter added that the millionaire son of Princequillo—a badly beaten 5th in last Saturday's $100,000 — added Woodward Stakes at Belmont Park—would stay out of action until the Santa Anita meeting this winter.

Round Table has won 13 races and almost $600,000 this season.

O-State Townsend Signed By Cards

Stillwater, Okla. (AP)—Lowell Townsend, long-ball hitting first baseman for Oklahoma State, has signed a bonus contract with the St. Louis Cardinals, the school announced Tuesday.

Townsend's bonus was believed to be in excess of $30,000.

The Stilwell, Okla., senior led State last spring in home runs with 6 and batted .311. He stands 6 feet 1 and weighs 190.

Townsend is the 9th OSU baseball player to sign a major league contract within the last two years.

$3 Million Suit Issued To NBA

New York (AP) — Jack Molinas, suspended in Jan., 1954, by the National Basketball Assn. after admittedly betting on his own team, Tuesday filed a $3,000,000 damage suit against the NBA, its president and 8 team owners.

Molinas, a former Columbia University star, claims the defendants "boycotted and blacklisted" him from negotiating an NBA contract.

Milwaukee Gives Braves Hot Celebration Despite Weather

Milwaukee (AP)—Shivering in 46-degree temperature but irrepressible as ever, Milwaukee baseball fans turned out in force Tuesday night to celebrate the Braves' 2nd straight National League pennant.

They did it with a huge World Series eve parade down Wisconsin Avenue, the city's main thoroughfare; a ceremony at the lake front War Memorial center at which Manager Fred Haney and his wife Florence were presented with a silver loving cup, and, finally, a thunderous display of fireworks.

Police estimated 50,000 persons lined the route of the parade which was headed by Braves players and executives and their families riding in open convertibles. Twenty-one bands, marching teams and drum and bugle corps were in the line of march.

There were cheers and shouts of "take those Yankees, now," as the ballplayers waved to the blanketed, overcoated crowd.

"You'll do it tomorrow, Warren" shouted an enthusiastic fan as a convertible carrying Braves' pitchers Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette passed.

ently suffering from shock, the West Virginia players belittled their Norman Conquerors after the game.

"They're not half as good as we thought they'd be," said one player (who evidently expected the score to be 94-28.)

Another remarked: "They don't hit . . . They don't tee up on defense . . . They don't do nuthing . . . They just don't have that good a ball club . . ." (This boy was rushed to a hospital as soon as he could remember his name.)

The punchiest Mountaineer got off this corker: " . . . this club isn't as good as Richmond (West Virginia beat Richmond 66-22 a week earlier.)

Maybe it was that unsportsmanlike bass drummer at OU which really caused the Mountaineer defeat. But I'll still take the Sooners over Richmond as the No. 1 team in the land.

Kansas State achieved one notable mark against Colorado last week, even though the Wildcats were on the short end of the score (13-3.)

Bus Mertes' gang out-defenses the Buffs 326 to 230 and that was the first time such a maneuver had been accomplished by an opponent—even Oklahoma—in 14 games.

But Mertes had an answer: "I'd be glad to give Dal (Ward, CU coach) 5,000 yards if he would give me the win."

Be it ever thus.

Extra Point Club To Turn In Funds

Extra Point Club members plan a final membership drive during Saturday's Nebraska-Iowa State game. Following the final big push solicitors are asked to turn in donations to John Bentley at the NU Athletic Office.

Bob Wagner, EPC president, said Tuesday "I feel we will near our goal of $15,000. It looks real good right now."

A's Buy Bella

Kansas City (AP)—The Kansas City Athletics announced Tuesday the purchase of heavy hitting John (Zeke) Bella from the New York Yankees.

Bella played with the Denver Bears of the American Assn. the last 3 years. Until last weekend the Bears and Yankees had a working agreement. Bella plays first base or in the outfield. He is 27.

Pastrano Upset By Britisher

London (AP) — British heavyweight champion Brian London Tuesday night won on a 5th round technical knockout over Willie Pastrano when the referee stopped the fight because of a bad cut on the American's left eyelid.

It was the first time Pastrano, 3rd ranking heavyweight contender from Miami Beach, Fla. had failed to go the distance in 54 profights. The 22-year-old American won a disputed 10-round decision over the husky Briton here last February and was a 3-2 favorite Tuesday night.

Pastrano sobbed in his corner after Referee Jack Hart walked over to London and held up the Briton's right hand.

London, a lantern-jawed, 227-pounder, opened the cut in the 3rd round after driving the 187½-pound American around the right with a bulling attack. He swung away with both hands. Many of his punches missed but some connected. Blood was smeared all over the left side of Pastrano's face.

The 24-year-old Briton bored in from the start and won the first 3 rounds with his aggressive tactics. Twice in the 2nd round, he drove Willie to the ropes.

Pastrano came back in the 4th round. He boxed brilliantly, ducking and weaving under the big Briton's flairing arms, and jabbing with his left.

The clever American stylist appeared to have the situation under control early in the 5th. He jabbed his lunging opponent and moved deftly. London, however, then began to match his jabs. The British champion stabbed at the cut and blood again streamed down Pastrano's face.

Willie appeared to have won the round but Referee Hart went to his corner in the rest period. After inspecting the eye, Hart shook his head and walked to London's corner.

The sellout crowd of 11,000 in Harringay Arena seemed stunned by the sudden finish.

CASEY NOT SURE YET OF LEFT FIELD CHOICE

Milwaukee (AP)—"I suppose Berra's my catcher for the first game and I gotta find some place to play Howard."

And with that, the 1958 World Series got underway Tuesday. The first game isn't until today, of course, but Casey Stengel has set up shop in Milwaukee.

After going through the usual ground rule preliminaries, Stengel set sail for the New York Yankee dugout at County Stadium, the tail of his plastic raincoat flapping in the chilly wind, and announced it was time to talk to the press.

"I understand Spahn will be their pitcher," said Casey. "Ford is mine and I suppose Berra's my catcher for the first game because he's caught Ford so much.

"At least right now Berra's my catcher.

"I haven't made up my lineup yet but I guess I can tell you Skowron will be at first and Carey at third and Kubek at short."

There was no need to mention center field, not with Mickey Mantle healthy.

"But left field is one problem I've got," said Stengel. The problem is whether to use his regular man Norm Siebern, a left-handed batter, or Elston Howard, a right-handed swinger, against southpaw Warren Spahn.

Stengel hasn't hesitated to use Siebern against left-handed pitching. Howard, who let the Yankees with a .314 batting average, has played first base, left field and right field and also done the catching.

Diminutive McWilliams Star Of Week

By Al Beebe

Art McWilliams, may be little in size, but he's a big man for Lincoln High on the gridiron.

Standing only 5-3¼ and weighing but 137½ pounds, McWilliams is dwarfed by most of Lincoln High opponents and his own teammates. But he is the most feared man on the Links' roster.

Lincoln Southeast has plenty of respect for him after he paced a 52-0 lacing of the Knights, for which he earns The Star's "Football Player of the Week" accolade.

The scatback scored 3 times, one an 80-yard run, and compiled 224 yards rushing against SE. His 80-yarder isn't his longest of the year, however. He returned a punt 97 yards the week before at North Platte.

When he isn't running, McWilliams might be throwing. He has tossed for several scores this year.

McWilliams, and these other top performers from last week's games, will receive "Football Player of the Week" cards from The Star.

Eagle—Lavane Johnson scored 7 touchdowns, on runs of 9, 30, 70, 5, 38, 24 and 12 and added two extra points for 44 of Eagle's total in 50-0 rout of Malcolm.

Axtell—Guard Don Nelson was big factor in 27-0 thumping of Amherst.

Dorchester—Vern Johnson scored 3 times and passed for the other TDs in 48-14 upset of Tobias.

Nebraska City—Paul Fenton scored twice to beat Crete, 13-7.

Minden—Sam Somerhalder had a total offense of 291 yards in 24-24 tie with Gothenburg, rushing for 117 and receiving passes for 174.

Holdrege—Tom Carlson threw touchdown passes of 73, 26, 39, 76 and 85 yards in routing Kearney, 46-13.

Oshkosh—Glen Vincent was the leading ground-gainer in 14-0 victory over Bridgeport, which had been ranked in Class B. Win moved Oshkosh to No. 1 spot in C.

Columbus—Con Keating's 67-yard run with a pass, plus tough linebacking, helped gain 13-13 tie with Grand Island.

200th Day In Hospital For Stokes

. . . Cage Great Uses Charades Game To Communicate

Cincinnati (AP) — Today marks the 200th day that Maurice Stokes, one of the National Basketball Association's finest rebounders, has lain helpless in a hospital bed.

When, if ever, he'll be able to lead a normal life still isn't known.

Stokes, regarded as one of the Pittsburgh area's greatest athletes, was stricken with a form of encephalitis (sleeping sickness), as he and other members of the Cincinnati Royals of the NBA were enroute here last March 15.

For a time he was in a coma. Then he became alert but still unable to move or speak.

Now there is slight movement of his arms and legs but he still has no power of speech. Communication is by a form of charades. Nurses and others reel off letters of the alphabet. Stokes nods when the right letter is reached and thus words are spelled out.

Members of his family—his parents, his brother and sister—have been here as often as possible.

The cost of the hospital treatment, of course, has mounted to a great figure. Much of it is being borne under workmen's compensation but more financial help is being arranged.

The Royals along with 3 other NBA clubs will participate in a doubleheader basketball game here Oct. 21 with all receipts to go to Stokes. Cincinnati will play the Detroit Pistons in one game. In the other the world champion St. Louis Hawks will meet the Boston Celtics.

The University of Mississippi is in its 12th football campaign under Coach Johnny Vaught. His 11-year record shows 79 victories, 24 defeats and 6 ties.

Stocks Still Surge Ahead

New York (AP) — The stock market's surge to historic highs continued Tuesday with volume swelling to 4,160,000 shares compared with 3,680,000 Monday.

Industrial shares carried the ball with little assistance from rails while the utilities moved upward moderately.

Oils, chemicals, steels, most tobaccos and drugs advanced. Late profit taking clipped gains of the rails, leaving them a bit ahead. Aircrafts, rubbers and mail orders were mixed.

The business and economic background continued favorable. Steel output was rising and unemployment declining.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 80c to $195.30, topping Monday's record peak. The industrials were up $1.20 while the rails rose 10c and the utilities 40c, both to 1958 highs.

The Dow Jones industrial average advanced 3.05 to 532.09, also exceeding Monday's record figure.

Of 1,236 issues traded, one of the broadest markets this year, 600 rose and 414 fell. There were 171 new highs for the year and 8 new lows.

Eleven of the 15 most active stocks advanced and 4 declined.

American Stock Exchange prices rose on volume of 1,220,000 shares compared with 1,120,000 Monday.

Soybeans Push Grain Prices Up

Chicago (AP) — A strong demand for soybean futures, excepting the distant July delivery, Tuesday pushed prices higher in an erratic Board of Trade session.

Most grain futures advanced at the outset but the higher prices attracted profit-taking and hedging, wiping out early gains in wheat, far off corn deliveries and all rye contracts. With the exception of old style December, all corn contracts hit new lows for the season during the day.

Strength in soybeans stemmed from overnight rains which slowed the expanding harvest and indications that producers are withholding the commodity in order to place them under government loan. Demand for November beans was especially strong and that contract was up more than two cents a bushel at one time.

Wheat closed ⅛ to 1c a bushel lower, December $1.93⅞; corn ⅛ higher to ¼ lower, old style December $1.13⅞-14; oats ⅛ to ½ higher, December 64¼ to ⅜; rye unchanged to 1c lower, December $1.30½-⅜; and soybeans 1⅜ higher to ¼ lower, November $2.18¼-⅛.

UAR Admission

Cairo (UPI) — Tunisia officially requested admission to the Arab League Tuesday. The league council is expected to approve the application, with that of Morocco, at its council meeting Wednesday.

QUEMOY:

Howitzers From U.S. In Action

. . . More Arms Due

Taipei, Formosa (UPI) — Highly accurate 8-inch guns supplied by the United States are in action on Big Quemoy Island against the Communist Chinese shore batteries, informed sources said Tuesday.

They were part of an accelerating U.S. boost to the Nationalist war-making and defense machinery.

American C119 "Flying Boxcar" planes capable of air-dropping 5-ton cargoes were scheduled to arrive soon to help supply the besieged Quemoy Islands.

Powerful Nike Hercules anti-aircraft missiles were en route from the United States for the defense of Formosa.

MIGs Downed

And in Peiping, Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai bitterly condemned the United States for "directing Nationalist Chinese President Chiang Kai-shek's air force to use U.S.-supplied sidewinder air-to-air missiles." The Nationalist fighter pilots knocked 7 Communist MIGs out of the skies with the sidewinders last week, informed sources said.

The 8-inch howitzers, fighting back in the hands of Nationalist artillerymen against the artillery barrage with which the Communists have attempted to blockade the Quemoy Islands, were believed partly responsible for recent Nationalist destruction claims against Red Chinese artillery, ammunition dumps, and China coast shipping.

Taipei sources told United Press International that U.S. Marines delivered an undisclosed number of the howitzers and turned them over to the Nationalists to counter the Communist saturation shellings.

Saboteurs Smashed

. . . In New Crackdown

Paris (UPI) — France opened a major drive Tuesday against Algerian rebels responsible for an increasing wave of bombings, shootings and sabotage.

As Premier Charles de Gaulle prepared for stern new measures to smash the rebel terrorism campaign, authorities announced that a major Algerian sabotage ring had been smashed in Southern France with the arrest of 14 persons, including 2 women, in the Marseilles area.

Officials said the ring had been responsible for setting fire to the giant mourepiane oil refinery in Marseilles Aug. 25, the day the current rebel sabotage campaign began. The ring also was charged with planting a bomb aboard the French ocean liner President de Cazalet.

Sets Meetings

De Gaulle scheduled a cabinet meeting Wednesday to consider new plans for coping with the rebels.

Final figures from Algeria showed that despite rebel efforts to hamstring the referendum, the European and Moslem population voted 3,299,908 in favor of the De De Gaulle constitution with 115,791 negative votes.

Premier de Gaulle's cabinet decided that the first legislative elections of the 5th French Republic will be held the second half of November.

Warring Camps Meet As U.S. Watches

. . . McClintock Calls Talk

Beirut, Lebanon (UPI) — U. S. Ambassador Robert McClintock brought top leaders of Lebanon's warring factions together in an unprecedented meeting Tuesday night in an effort to find a settlement for the tense political deadlock.

McClintock arranged for talks between leaders of Premier Rashid Karami's government and the Christian Phalangists, who paralyzed Beirut for the second straight day with a general strike Tuesday. There were reports the government was about to bow to some of the Phalangists' demands.

First Time

It was the first time McClintock had got leaders of the feuding camps together during the long crisis, although he has met with them separately many times.

Informed sources said areas of compromise were discussed in a "friendly and constructive atmosphere." They said emphasis was on the possibility of expanding Karami's cabinet to include Phalangist followers of Former President Camille Chamoun, a Phalangist condition for ending the strike.

The meeting took place at McClintock's invitation at the American Embassy. Karami had agreed to attend, but at the last minute was called away to meet with President Fuad Chehab.

EARLY PULLOUT HOPED

. . . Of U.S. Troops

United Nations, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold told the U.N. he had conditional promises of an early withdrawal of U.S. and British troops from Lebanon and Jordan.

But he declared it was too early to predict if the Arab nations would be successful in living together as good neighbors as they had promised.

He indicated also that if serious difficulties arise, the Middle East situation may again be brought to the U.N. as a threat to world peace.

Initial Report

Hammarskjold made the comments in his initial report to the General Assembly on arrangements he had set up to safeguard peace in Lebanon and Jordan, and to facilitate an early troop withdrawal.

The secretary general said Lebanon and the United States hope to see the complete withdrawal of U.S. forces by the end of October, provided the security situation in Lebanon continues to improve.

He added that Britain and Jordan will announce Wednesday a decision to begin withdrawal in October, and that it will be completed as quickly as the situation in the area permits.

Author Dies

Gettysburg, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Elsie Singmaster Lewars, author of more than 300 novels and children's stories, died in a convalescent home. She was 79.

Mrs. Lewars, who wrote as Elsie Singmaster, created 12 major novels, the first appearing in 1915, the last in 1947.

Farm Product Prices Rise

Washington (AP)—Farm product prices increased about 2% during the month ended Sept. 15.

This upturn, reported by the USDA, halted a 4 month decline.

Primarily responsible for the increase were record high prices for grapefruit, near record prices for oranges, and increases for beef cattle, eggs, milk and cotton. Partially offsetting were lower prices for hogs, chickens and corn.

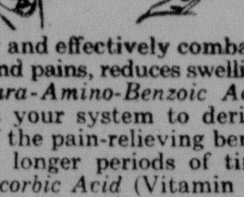
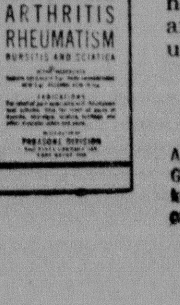
Warsaw Talks Progress Slowly

Warsaw (UPI)—U. S. Ambassador Jacob Beam and Communist Chinese Ambassador Wang Ping-nan discussed the Formosa Strait crisis for nearly 3 hours Tuesday but neither would say whether there was any progress.

The length of the meeting, the 5th in 15 days, indicated the ambassadors might have found an opening to end the deadlock. But Beam and Wang would tell reporters afterward only that they had agreed to meet again Saturday.

The fact that the talks have continued has been the only hopeful sign.





What Is Being Done About ARTHRITIS and RHEUMATISM?

Almost daily, medical reports show progress is being made! And here is important news! Right now, at your pharmacy, there is new, comforting relief from agonizing rheumatic and arthritic pain. It is the most complete medication yet made available to the public without prescription. The name is PABASONE.

PROLONGS RELIEF FROM PAIN OF STIFF, ACHING JOINTS . . . 3 WAYS!

Unlike many "pain-relieving" products which depend mainly on the action of common aspirin . . . Pabasone contains three ingredients which work together to relieve rheumatic and arthritic pain: Sodium Salicylate quickly and effectively combats aches and pains, reduces swelling . . . Para-Amino-Benzoic Acid enables your system to derive more of the pain-relieving benefits for longer periods of time . . . Ascorbic Acid (Vitamin C) aids in maintaining prolonged relief from pain, and replenishes your system with this essential vitamin.

MEDICAL EXPERTS KNOW THE PABASONE FORMULA

Get Pabasone in easy-to-take tablet form at your pharmacist's today. You may rediscover the joys of normal, active days, pain-free, restful nights! The Pabasone formula has been clinically tested and approved by medical authorities. They know Pabasone actually helps bring you more complete freedom from arthritic and rheumatic pain than any product you can get, without prescription.

PABASONE

Also relieves pains of Bursitis, Neuritis, Sciatica & Lumbago. Guaranteed by the makers of famous Pinex Cough Syrups, known for over a half a century for fast, safe, effective relief of coughs due to colds and flu.

—Only 5 Business Houses Missed—

Dozen Haigler Places Entered; $1,534 Gone

...Service Station Heaviest Loser

Lincoln Star Special

Haigler, Neb.—Investigation continued late Tuesday in the early morning breakins of 12 Haigler business firms, netting the intruders $1,534 plus $150 worth of merchandise, according to Town Marshal Bill Walker.

The burglars entered all but 5 of this small town's business places. Walker said the breakins came sometime after 1 a.m. Tuesday.

Haigler, with a population of 398 residents, is located in Dundy County in extreme southwestern Nebraska near the Kansas and Colorado borders.

Heaviest loser in the burglaries was Ryan's Conoco Service Station where an estimated $1,080 was missing from a drawer, Walker disclosed.

Another heavy loser was the Bill Wall Pool Room. Between $250 and $275 was reported taken from a cash register and boxes.

Doors were sprung to gain entry to the vault at the Haigler Co-Op Elevator where the intruders walked off with $105, Walker said.

A deer rifle, valued at $150, was reportedly stolen from Vick Staffer's Garage. An unsuccessful attempt was made to enter the safe here.

Approximately $15 in change was taken from the McKay Garage, the marshal said. Hoffman's Pool Hall reported $6 missing.

An estimated $30 was taken from Trembley's Grocery, while $3 was missing from Trembley's Hardware. The stores are operated by brothers.

Other places entered but reporting nothing taken were the Bob Schorzman Electrical Co., Wiley's Trucking Co., Schmuttee's Ready To Wear, and Wheaton's Cafe.

Walker revealed that tools believed used to pry doors in the breakins were found. A Nebraska Safety Patrolman from Holdrege was in Haigler Tuesday taking fingerprints.

The chain of thefts came while Dundy County Sheriff Glenard Phelps of Benkelman was in Lincoln to pick up a youth wanted for taking a car at Haigler Friday night. Officers said they did not believe there was any connection between the burglaries and the stolen car.

Approach Wrong To Watershed Problem—Hruska

Dallas (AP) — Dr. Ira Gabrielson told the National Watershed Congress coordinated action is needed to harness the nation's water resources.

Gabrielson, president of the Wildlife Management Institute of Washington, spoke to representatives of 24 organizations from throughout the nation.

In a dinner speech, Sen. Roman L. Hruska (R-Neb) said that misunderstanding and confusion in handling water problems results from "piecemeal approach to the problem by various segments, interests or organizations."

"Too often one segment will see an opportunity to achieve its program in a very complete fashion, and the temptation is strong to disregard the disadvantageous impact upon two or 3 other aspects of the water problem," he said.

Bus Vandalism Complaint Brings School's Reply

Omaha (AP) — Charges and counter-charges flew after the Omaha Transit Company wrote the school board complaining of vandalism and terrorism on buses following school and football games.

Lynn G. Barnes, president of Transit, said if the company were to seek a fare increase at this time he "would insist that there be no special fares for students."

Supt. Harry Burke of the public school system termed the letter "public blackmail" and charged the firm "is interested not in stopping bus vandalism but in unloading a defunct organization on the city."

He said the transit letter "is another campaign to raise the fares and sock the parents $200,000."

Barnes countered with the claim that Burke's charge is an "untruth."

"They are welcome at any time to visit our shop and inspect the damage," he said.

Cave-In Kills Omahan, 73

Omaha (AP) — James J. Jensen, 73, of Omaha was killed in a cave-in Tuesday.

Fire Department Rescue Squad members said Jensen, a septic tank installer, was digging near a cesspool when the walls of the hole collapsed. They said he was buried under about 4 foot of earth. He was dead on arrival at County Hospital.

Wreckage Of Missing Navy Plane Found

...Omahan Pilot

Key West, Fla. (UPI) — Searchers Tuesday night found the nose cone and other pieces of the wreckage of a Navy "submarine hunter" plane which disappeared with 10 men aboard on a flight over the Florida straits.

Officials said there were no survivors or bodies spotted. The wreckage was found 22 miles north of Key West. Navy crash boats and minesweepers rushed to the scene with detection equipment in hopes of locating the rest of the plane wreckage.

The pilot of the downed plane was identified as Lt. Robert G. Tombrinck, 30, of Brunswick, Me., whose parents live in Omaha, Neb. He was a brother of A. J. Tombrinck, also of Omaha.

Eighteen helicopters, 3 blimps, several patrol planes and 6 surface vessels criss-crossed a wide area from the north Cuban coast to Homestead, Fla., and from the Bahamas to west of Dry Tortugas.

The twin-engined P2v plane from Brunswick, Me., left the Key West Naval Air Station on a routine instrument-checking mission.
